DISPOSAL PLANS INVOLVED

Oxidation Engineer Appears Before Commission

"Selfish interests are using Lima as a battleground on which to stop the progress of scientific methods of sewage disposal," H. Jerome Hirst, direct oxidation engineer, charged at an open meeting held Thursday afternoon in the rooms of the city commission.

"All thought of the best interests of Lima have been forgotten by the engineers who are trying to foist an antiquated system of sewage treatment on the city, in order to save their own reputations," he asserted. "Lima, because of the location of the site of the disposal plant, will either accept the direct oxidation method or build no plant at all. A tricking filter plant would not be satisfactory in any particular," he charged.

"Not only is the odor from the trickling or sprinkling filter plant almost unbearable to those living within a mile of it, but there is a species of red that breeds in its beds that would become a pest to all parts of the city," Hirst charged.

COURTS INVESTIGATION
Before making his talk to the city officials and citizens at the meeting, Hirst assured them that he could verify everything he would say and invited full investigation of his process. A stenographic record of the meeting was made by a court reporter.

"There will be no odor nor fly infestation from the direct oxidation plant," Hirst declared. "My company is ready to post a cash bond in any amount to be decided by the city commission guaranteeing that the odor will be thoroughly satisfactory." Hirst Commissioner H. L. Breckinridge told the citizens present that the Fuller & McClocktick firm has refused to guarantee in any way or even promise the city that there will be no odor from its plant, or that it can be successfully eliminated.

"Furthermore, because of the present financial condition of the city, we will agree to operate the plant for one year absolutely free of cost to the city of Lima. We offer this partly because we realize we must fight the consulting engineers and will leave nothing undone to prove we are right," Hirst asserted.

Claims of James Halfhill, former attorney for Fuller & McClocktick, that the costs of operation of the direct oxidation system would be $49,000 more than that of the sprinkling filter plant were disproven by Hirst thru the use of George Fuller's report to the city.

Costs as outlined by Fuller for the sprinkling filter system are: Fixed charges, bonds and interest, $72,500; operating costs $15,700, a total of $88,200. Direct oxidation costs as stated by George A. Johnson, engineer employed by the city, are: Fixed charges, $21,974.88, operating costs, $25,895.50 and total costs $47,870.38.

WHAT REPORT SHOWS

These reports by Fuller and Johnson indicate that the saving thru the adoption of the direct oxidation system would be $20,326.62, instead of $40,000 the other way. Hirst pointed out. Revised figures on present day costs show the sprinkling filter costs as $71,250 a year and the direct oxidation costs as $50,924, a difference of $20,326 in favor of the latter.

Following the talk by Hirst, Halfhill admitted he had at one time been employed by the Fuller & McClocktick engineering firm, but that he is acting now as a private citizen, attempting to aid the city in reaching some satisfactory agreement with the state.

He proposed that the state board of health be invited to Lima for a public hearing on the sewage disposal question and advised against the adoption of the direct oxidation system.

City officials are convinced that the direct oxidation method is the best for Lima. Mayor Harold Cunningham told citizens prior to Hirst's talk, that he believes the approval of the state will be obtained when it is formally asked.

DONAHEY ARRANGES SCHEDULE FOR CALLERS

COLUMBUS — With 3,400 applications seeking some 75 state jobs and with scores of others crowding into his office daily to see him on various matters, Governor Donahey has been compelled to arrange a schedule for seeing callers.

Beginning Monday, the governor announced, he will devote the forenoon to seeing state department heads and members of the legislature only. He will see and confer with other callers only in the afternoons.

Because of the number of persons he has had to see in the last few days he has been unable to find time for matters of pressing importance and has answered no correspondence for a week, he said.

3 NATIONS ALARMED OVER EAST PRUSSIAN OUTBREAK

Lithuanian Uprising Involves Germany, France, Britain

TOWN OF MEMEL INVADIED

Draws Teutons, French in Fight on Common Enemy

PARIS — (Associated Press) — The French and British governments are preparing to send warships to Memel, the former East Prussian territory on the Baltic, internationalized by the treaty of Versailles, with the purpose of maintaining order in view of the invasion by the Lithuanians.

Dispatches received by the French foreign office today indicate that the Lithuanian irregulars who crossed the frontier earlier in the week have reached the outskirts of the town of Memel and exchanged shots with the German guard.

PROTECTION WEAK

The great lumber port at Memel, which has been under temporary authority of a directorate composed of Germans since the signing of the treaty of Versailles, has no other military protection than a couple of hundred French soldiers, part of a battalion sent there during the peace negotiations of 1919.

While the Germans predominate in the town the Lithuanians are a far greater number in the immediate outlying districts and there are fears in French official circles that the irregulars may overwhelm the local forces and create a difficult situation.

The French and the British have made a diplomatic protest to the Lithuanian government at Kovno. The reply was that every effort was made to prevent the irregulars from crossing the frontier.

Latest reports however, indicate that a rather strong force has not only succeeded in crossing the frontier but has reached the town. This movement is regarded here as the result of a well laid plan, the object of which, according to the French, is to balance the Polish occupation of Vilna by taking possession of Memel. Final disposal of Memel has been under discussion by the allied council of ambassadors which thus far has been unable to come to a decision.

The original intention of the allies was to organize a plebiscite to allow the inhabitants to decide whether they preferred Lithuanian or Polish sovereignty.

CURIOUS WAR SPECTACLE

LONDON — (Associated Press) — The curious spectacle of the French and the Germans fighting a common enemy on the frozen shores of the Baltic is expected from today's developments in the topsy-turvy situation as a result of the Lithuanian advance on Memel. The Memel police, composed for the most part of Germans, and the French troops entrenched in the outskirts of the city, will resist the Lithuanian raiders, according to advices received here.

STATE OF SIEGE

COPENHAGEN — (Associated Press) — An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Memel reports that the inter-allied high commissioner has proclaimed Memel in a state of siege. The newspaper Møbelers Dampboat says a proclamation signed by members of the "committee for saving little Lithuania" and headed by H. Sunonatz, said to be a former Lithuanian minister, has been created president of the Memel territory.

WATCHMAN EXONERATED IN KILLINGS AT ADA

Grand jury investigation growing out of the death of three persons struck by a Pennsylvania train at Ada December 21, ended at Kanton today when charges against B. J. Hirst, 38, crossing watchman, were dropped.

Jury members found that Hirst was overworked at the moment of the accident he was busy copying a telegram. In addition to guarding the crossing in Gilbert-st., he also handled two telephone lines and two wires.

The three killed at the fatal crossing were Emerson Hull, 16; Catherine, 14, a sister, and Imogene Hedrick, 14.

SONS WILL ADMINISTER ESTATE OF J. A. JACOBS

J. C. Jacobs and W. H. Jacobs, Lima, were appointed administrators of the estate of their father, the late James A. Jacobs, Perry-p., by Judge J. H. Hamilton in probate court Friday.

Value of the property listed in the estate is shown to be $26,000. Hence sons will receive $1,000 bequests and $500 legacies will go to each of two daughters.

MORNING STAR TO DISAPPEAR

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Early risers' throughout the country east of Denver Saturday morning are promised a rare astronomical spectacle by the United States naval observatory here.

Just before dawn, the morning star, Venus, brightest of the planets will perform a disappearance act behind the moon, now a thin crescent. The star will slip behind the round side and reappear on the hollow side in from 22 minutes to an hour, depending on the location of the observer. It has been many years since this occurred.

The times of disappearance and reappearance, converted by the observatory to local times for the principal cities where the sight will be visible follows.

Columbus, Ohio, 5:20 to 6:20; Chicago, 5:20 to 6:15; New Orleans, 5 to 6:15; Denver, 4 to 5:03.

MINISTER TAKES OWN LIFE

New York Episcopal Clergyman's Body Found in Bath Tub

BULLET WOUND IN TEMPLE

Parishioners Suspect Tragedy Result of Romance

NEW YORK

Motive for suicide of Dr. Percy Gordon, 60, until recently assistant rector of the fashionable St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church, was a mystery today.

Dr. Gordon was found dead, a bullet wound in his right temple, in a bath tub at the Hotel Wolcott, where he had been staying since his return from a trip to Paris. He had been dead several hours and several more hours elapsed before the discovery was reported to police, who said the case was one of suicide.

William M. Singreen, manager of the hotel, declared that the last time the minister was seen, he was laughing with a group in the lobby. He received a special delivery letter, Singreen said, and hurried to his room.

LETTERS LEFT

Dr. Gordon left two letters, one addressed to his son at the American embassy in Paris and the other to Dr. Leighton Parks, rector of St. Bartholomew's. Both letters were sealed and police withheld information.

Fashionable members of St. Bartholomew's included Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Sr., Mrs. W. Gilman Thompson, Mrs. Charles Scribner, Mrs. John A. Drexler, Mrs. W. L. Harkness and Mrs. J. H. Choate.

For months it had been reported among the parishioners that romance had entered Dr. Gordon's life. He had been living apart from his wife. He recently made a trip abroad from which he returned suddenly after his son had hastened from Paris embassy to the boat to persuade him to go back at once.

BRAIN STORM FEARED

Recently friends had feared Dr. Gordon might be suffering from what they characterized as a "brain storm" and one went so far as to communicate with George Gordon, at Paris, suggesting he return to take care of his father.

Having in mind a recent tragedy evolved from love of a rector for a married parishioner, friends were on the point of intervening to break up the alleged romance.

Yesterday a letter reached Dr. Gordon. He went upstairs, read it in private. A few minutes later he shot himself.

What became of the letter that holds the clue to his suicide, what it contained, whether the minister killed himself from fear or fatigue, or while mentally unbalanced, is what private detectives backed by the money behind St. Bartholomew's as well as police, tried to find out today.

Dr. Gordon came here from New England. He had been assistant to Dr. Parks, present minister of St. Bartholomew's at Boston 15 years ago, and more recently had a parish at New Bedford. His wife lives in Florida, and Dr. Gordon had two brothers in Savannah.

UTILITY COMPANY SEEKS SAFETY

Commission, Contractors, Architects Guests at Dinner

CITY ORDINANCE PLANNED

Ohio Power Plant Heads Disclose Plans for Lima

First moves toward safety in electrical installations and the passage of an electrical inspection ordinance by the city commission were made Thursday night at a dinner given by the Ohio Power company for architects and electrical contractors of the city, at the Elks' home.

Very little work has been done in the past in the wiring of homes for electricity and even today there are some contractors being completed where the rules of the insurance companies or the public service corporations have not been lived up to, H. C. Sterling, manager, said.

Where the wiring has not been properly installed there is great danger of fire from short circuits, as well as a waste of current thru defective connections, it was pointed out.

Primarily the dinner was planned to afford company representatives an opportunity to meet electrical contractors and architects and to present them with a booklet of suggestions regarding the electric service installations, which may be made in Lima in the future.

INSPECTION PLANNED

At the same time the question of municipal inspection was broached and its advantages to everyone pointed out. It is as greatly to the advantage of the customer to know that his electrical wiring has been properly installed and is safe, as it is to the electrical company, Sterling declared.

The booklet points out the requirements which must be met by the customer if he is to receive current from the O. P. company. The regulations outlined are the same as those which the company has placed in effect in all other Ohio cities served by it.

Installations of service, overhead and underground, transformer vaults, power poles and starting current tables, laying of ground wires, placing of meters and requirements before increasing or decreasing the current consumption, are discussed.

Officials of the company went over each section of the booklet with the contractors and explained all portions which were not clear. A detailed explanation of meter sets on exhibition was undertaken. These will be placed at the power company's headquarters for general inspection.

Short talks were given by Frank Howard, general manager of the Ohio Power company; H. C. Sterling, manager of the Lima branch; C. A. Bingham, city manager; Peter M. Hulseken, architect, and Harry Reed, electrical contractor.

An appeal to the power men and contractors to stir up interest in municipal inspection of electrical equipment was made by Bingham. He pointed out that the city commission is ready to take care of this need if sufficient interest is evidenced by citizens.

ADVANCE IS SEEN

Considerable advance in electrical engineering and many aids for the consumers will be seen in Lima during the present year, Howard predicted. During 1923 the Ohio Power company hopes to be able to increase the amount of current available to consumers by several hundred per cent.

Experts connected with the American Gas and Electric company, part of the Lima concern, are now going over the meter installations in Lima and are doing everything in their power to bring them up to date, it was announced. Three experts are at work.

Necessity of many "conveniences" outlets in the modern home was pointed out by Sterling. This increases the first cost somewhat, but it assures the housewife that any electrical appliance she may desire to use in any room can be taken care of without disarrangement of other service.

Everything possible will be done toward bringing about better electrical installations in the city and the proposed inspection service will receive enthusiastic backing. It was indicated following the dinner.

MRS. VICARY TO SETTLE ESTATE OF HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Anna M. Vicar, 332 W. Market-st., was named in probate court Friday as executrix of the $26,000 estate left by George S. Vicar, former president of the Star Iron works.

The decedent left $20,000 personal effects and $6,000 realty. Appraisers of the estate appointed by the court are: J. G. Neubauer, E. R. Curtin, and Jacob Piper. In his will Vicar named Lima churches, lodges, and charitable organizations for liberal bequests.

PICKED AS SCHOOL'S GREATEST GRADUATE

COLUMBUS — Benjamin G. Lamme, chief engineer of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, Pittsburg, was presented the Joseph Sullivan medal here today by Ohio State University authorities, who picked Lamme as the school's greatest graduate.

The medal was awarded Lamme for "notable achievement in electrical engineering." Under the terms of the Joseph Sullivan fund, a similar award is to be made to the University's foremost graduate every five years. Lamme was graduated from Ohio State University in 1888.

BANDIT'S ESTATE IS SUED

Surety Company After Property of Raleigh R. Townsend

Dramatic scenes enacted when the Huntertown, Indiana, bank was robbed May 20, 1921, were rehearsed at Ft. Wayne Friday at a hearing in the suit brought by the U. S. Guarantee & Fidelity Company, sureties for the bank, against Roy Bowersock, administrator of the estate of Raleigh R. Townsend, slain by police here when part of the gang was rounded up.

Depositions of farmers and merchants who were on the village streets when the bandits drove up in two high powered cars will be taken, for use when the case comes to trial in Allen county courts.

The surety company is seeking to show that Townsend was present at the robbery, and is endeavoring to collect money from the estate, to satisfy a portion of the loss, which has never been recovered.

Bowersock contends that Townsend was not in Huntertown, but was in Lima all morning the day of the robbery and was killed shortly after noon, when police routed the McGahn band from its lair on the south side.

CASEY VOGEL NOT HELD AFTER RAID ON PLACE

Following a raid by city detectives upon the "Hole in the Wall," E. Elm-st., Thursday afternoon, Casey Vogel, proprietor of the soft drink saloon, was ordered into police station for investigation.

Evidence against Vogel was found to be insufficient to make formal charges, and he was dismissed following questioning by officers.

DOG TAG SALES UP TO 1,000; MANY STILL OUT

Sale of dog licenses for 1923 passed the 1000 mark Friday, County Auditor C. R. Phillips said, commenting on the annual struggle to get owners of canines to buy tags for their pets.

Sale is lagging Phillips asserted, and indicated that there are either few dogs in the county, or the owners are unwilling to list them.

Further Complications in Reparations Crisis Seen

PARIS PLANS NEW MOVES

May Invade Another Ruhr Zone—City of Essen Quiet

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Developments in the reparations crisis in which further complications loom with the declaration of Germany that she is "not in a position to make actual reparations to those powers" participating in the Ruhr, occupation found the American government today apparently still without hope of any immediate opportunity for helpfulness in the situation.

In the course dictated by the friendliest sentiments toward France as well as the other powers has been and will continue to be followed by the administration. It was said, in making any possible opportunity to aid in adjustment of the reparations crisis. In the meantime, it is the administration's purpose, it was said authoritatively, to avoid any action that might further complicate matters or lead to needless misunderstandings. In this connection it was reiterated that there was no present intention of recalling Roland W. Boyden, American unofficial observer on the reparations commission, despite agitation in congress for his return.

THREEFOLD BREACH

Holding the Ruhr occupation to be "in contradiction with the treaty (of Versailles) and international law" the German government in a formal protest left at the state department yesterday by Dr. Otto Weiselt, the German ambassador, declared that as long as the alleged violations obtained "Germany is not in a position to make actual reparations to those powers who have brought about this state of affairs."

The German government, however, the protest said, "did not intend to meet violence with violence nor to reply to the breach of the treaty with a withdrawal from the treaty."

Charging that the action of the French and Belgians represented a threefold breach in the Versailles treaty, the protest claimed as one violation that the treaty "does not admit of any territorial sanctions."

The measures that are allowed against Germany, it asserted can only be applied by the allied powers as a whole, and as the third element of breach it was asserted that Germany's default in the delivery of coal and wood, the existence of which was said to have been "not only denied by Germany alone," would "always only justify demands for subsequent payments."

FRANCE MAY EXTEND GRIP

PARIS — (Associated Press) — France at last has a grip on the "productive guarantees" she has sought from Germany, and has served notice, thru her premier, that she is prepared to extend her hold on the Ruhr. Her economic occupation of Essen does not yield satisfactory results. It was understood here today in fact, that another Ruhr zone would be subjected to "invisible occupation" within three days.

Premier Poincare, however, in his statement in the chamber of deputies warned the nation not to expect that the opening of the Ruhr treasure house would be followed immediately by a flood of gold. He asserted that it probably would be some time before the control commission's efforts would be noticeably productive.

If the newspapers reflect public opinion, yesterday was undoubtedly regarded as a red letter day by the majority of Frenchmen. No misgivings for France's step are noticeable, except among the radical critics of the government who do not believe that the firm policy of M. Poincare can have beneficial results.

CITY OF ESSEN QUIET

ESSEN — (United Press) — Essen was quiet today. During the night the French withdrew from the heart of the city and when citizens appeared about their duties this morning they encountered only an occasional blue-coated sentry patrolling the downtown streets.

The bulk of the invading forces had been withdrawn to the suburbs. The absence of tanks, armored cars and machine guns was marked. German traffic police were in charge throughout the city.

Surprised at the absence of warlike demonstrations, citizens of Essen, who had acted sullenly when the city first was seized were apparently engrossed in an effort to master their sentiment. Still German miles were exchanged as occasional groups of French officers appeared.

The French commandeered the Kaiserhof Hotel, evicting both permanent and transient guests and press correspondents who had made this their headquarters. The engineer control commission and a group of French officers moved in. Uneasiness is expressed regarding what may transpire tomorrow which is pay day when the miners have been accustomed to come in from the coal fields and drink rather heavily. The government's action in guaranteeing the miners' pay has somewhat relieved this fear, however.

2 WORKERS HURT

Seriously Injured in Accidents at Loco Plant

Two employees of the Lima Locomotive works were seriously injured Thursday afternoon and Friday morning in separate accidents, making a total of three in as many days at the same plant and six in four days.

Joseph Naylor, 39, of 502 1-2 S. Main-st. was crushed about the chest Friday morning when a large cylinder suspended on a crane struck him.

Bernard Stempsey, 34, of 744 E. Elizabeth-st., was struck on the back by a heavy plank that fell from the top floor of the new addition to the plant a distance of 65 feet. Both were taken to St. Rita's hospital, suffering internal injuries.

Condition of Harry Stotts, 44, of 1236 W. Wayne-st., who received a fractured skull Wednesday when hit by a testing engine operated within the same plant, is reported to be unchanged at St. Rita's hospital.

CONTEST PLANNED FOR STUDENTS

Prizes Offered for Best Thought on Subject of Thrift

GOVERNMENT MAN TO SPEAK

Schools Plan Contribution to Special Event

An essay contest for high school students on the general subject of thrift will be the contribution of the public schools toward Thrift Week, January 17 to 23, it was announced Friday.

Thrift in its general sense may be used as the subject of the essay or some phase of the question may be employed by the contestants in entering the competition. It is announced. Essays should not be more than 500 words in length. Awards will be $5 for first prize, $3 for second prize and $2 for the third prize. They will be in the form of savings accounts, the winners to decide in which bank or loan association the deposit shall be made.

TO CLOSE JAN. 26

Competition will close January 26 and the awards will be made as soon as the judges are able to arrive at a decision. Judges are: Miss Ruth Seymour, Y. W. C. A., and Mr. E. Ansley, Lima Better Business Bureau and Commerce Club.

Rules of the contest are: Any regularly enrolled high school student is eligible to compete.

The essay should be written upon the general of Thrift or some phase of this general subject.

Essays not to exceed 500 words in length.

The completed essays are to be in the hands of the high school principals or someone specifically designated by them not later than January 26 and the prizes will be awarded as soon as the judges reach their decision.

The prize-winning essays will be published.

Contestants must not sign their own names but must use a nom de plume and enclose it with their name in a sealed envelope and submit it with the essay.

Write with ink on one side of paper, size 8 1/2x11 (typewriter may be used).

Essays will not be returned to the writer unless called for after the papers have been judged.

The Public Library has listed magazine articles and books upon the subject of Thrift which will be of benefit to those entering the contest.

PAUL TO SPEAK

Interest in the series of three meetings to be addressed by Irving S. Paul, former government investigator, Monday is increasing daily, directors of the Thrift Week campaign assert.

Paul will talk to the Rotarians Monday noon, to members of the Federation of Women's club at 2:30 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium and at a mass meeting in the evening at the high school auditorium.

Two years ago when the cost of living was at its peak, Paul was selected by the government to carry on a thorough investigation into the factors which make the spread between the producer and consumer as great as they are.

In his talks Monday he will show where the money spent by the buyer goes and he will point out the things which the consumer can do to decrease living costs.

His message, it is said, will be of interest to all industries and trades and will show conclusively why living costs are high and what can be done to permanently lower them.

FUNERAL OF SUICIDE

Funeral services for Walter Miller, 31, whose body was found hanging from a beam in the barn, at his home near Mendon, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Salem church, Rev. Hans, Spencer, will officiate at the obsequies. Interment in Salem cemetery.

FREIGHT YARD PLANNED

BUCKEYUS — The Cleveland and Northwestern traction line has petitioned city council for authority to build a freight yard and freight station.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, G. M. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get this agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

LUNA SCHEDULED TO WOO VENUS

Brilliant Morning Star Will be Eclipsed Saturday

At about 5:20 a. m. Saturday, Limas whose alarm clocks will prove equal to the task of arousing them at that unusual hour, will witness a phenomenon in the heavens, the equal of which for beauty and impressiveness will not have been witnessed in 49 years.

At this time, according to a forecast sent out by astronomers at the Cincinnati observatory, Venus, now a brilliant morning star, will disappear behind the moon. Slowly, cautiously, stealthily, silver crescent-shaped Luna will creep up, finally totally obscuring the morning star as it disappears under the bright side of the moon.

Because of the unusual brilliance of Venus at this time, the spectacle will be one of rare beauty. For an hour the star will remain hidden and at 6:19 a. m. will finally reappear from under the dark side of the moon.

The phenomenon will be visible to the naked eye, it is said. This identical occurrence does not come regularly, according to the report, and has not been visible in the United States for a long time, although it was reported in France and England two years ago.

The scientific explanation of the phenomenon lies in the fact that the orbit of Venus is near the plane where all the planets revolve. As the moon passes Venus in its monthly course, it is sometimes near, sometimes far from this planet. At long periods of time, the moon passes so close to the start as to totally eclipse it for a time.

RECONCILED TWICE, WIFE PRESSES THIRD SUIT FOR DIVORCE FROM J. WINKLER

Before prohibition, John Winkler, 1029 N. Main-st., spent his money in saloons, since prohibition he has spent it with the bootleggers, Anna Winkler testified in trial of a divorce action in common pleas court Friday.

The suit was the first of three actions instituted by the wife, to come to trial. Previous suits have been dismissed after reconciliations.

Judge Starn, before whom the case is on trial, is hearing his second Allen-co divorce suit.

New clothes were bought for her by the defendant, Mrs. Winkler told the court. She told of the purchase of one suit and a dress.

A hat she was wearing, she said was a present from Winkler, six years ago. It cost 33 cents, she declared.

When the saloons were open, the witness said, life was one drink after another for Winkler. He was habitually intoxicated. Now the drink is scarce and the price is high, but he manages to get it she declared.

Winkler is fighting the suit. They have been wed for more than 20 years.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN IS APPROVED

Schools and Churches Will Combat Automobile Accidents

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE SEEN

Protection of Children Aim of Those Backing Work

A campaign for safety instruction thru the schools and for an appeal thru the pulpits of the city as a method of eliminating many automobile accidents was approved Friday by Chief of Police T. A. Lanker.

There are two points of contact with the public have not been used as much as has been desired, Lanker said, but their possibilities have often been thought of and now seems an opportune time to take definite action.

Ministers of the city will be urged to make sermon appeals to the public to cooperate in the movement to reduce automobile accidents thru the exercising of the proper care and by observing the city's traffic laws.

That the clergy of the city will be glad to cooperate with the police department and make special mention of the various safety rules was assured by Rev. W. H. Howard, chairman of the Lima ministerial association, Friday.

NEGLECTANCE IS CHARGED Many of the accidents which have been seen are the result of criminal negligence, Rev. Howard said, although this carelessness has been induced to a great extent by the bad examples of practically every motorist on the highways.

It is felt there is a normal side to the question and that anything which can be done to save a life, especially that of a child who, thru no conscious fault of his own, is seriously injured or killed should receive the active support of the churches.

Much good work can be done in the schools, Lanker pointed out, and ever since the reorganization of the police force was started he has often desired to cooperate with the authorities and hold short safety schools in each room.

It is possible, one of the traffic officers or patrolmen would be detailed to meet the school children and to explain to them the reasons why safety rules should be followed.

WOULD SPREAD IDEA This would not only make them more careful but it would cause them to become messengers, carrying the idea of careful driving of automobiles into every home in the city, Lanker points out.

Photographs of the various hazards and the way to successfully avoid them, perils of "jay walking" and the danger thru permitting the children to play in the street would be made available to both the schools and the ministers.

Other cities are realizing the necessity for instruction along these lines and are calling upon all civic, religious and social organizations to aid in the safety instruction. Ministers of Cleveland have already agreed to convey the message to their congregations and to aid the movements in every way possible.

TED IS HOPING FOR SUNSHINE

Very little sunshine was on tap Friday, to cheer the heart and warm the bones of the weather mascot, but he did not give up hope of seeing Old Sol on the job, after scanning the weather forecast.

Fair tonight and Saturday, except snow flurries in extreme north-east portion. Colder tonight.

Ted believes that his rights his appearance in this column today should be featured with the sun in the background, but it couldn't be done as a prospect when these paragraphs were prepared.

Young America isn't a bit dismayed by prospect of snow and colder. Fulfilled, that means better coasting and skating. Two weaknesses which the average youth is not ashamed of and which he doesn't hesitate to court.

JAZZ, JOY RIDES ARE SCORED

Court Says they Contribute to Growing Delinquency

MANY CASES ARE HANDLED

Judge Hamilton Blames Parents for Much Laxity

Jazz dancing, night joy rides in high powered cars and parties where intoxicants are served are blamed by Juvenile Judge J. H. Hamilton, for the growing delinquency among young boys and girls.

A total of 149 delinquent children have been tried before Judge Hamilton, in the 2 year period ending January 9.

One girl was tried for contributing to the downfall of a companion, and 45 boys for leading girls astray. More than 162 dependent children, not delinquents, have been handled by the court.

The custom of placing children on probation has worked fairly well, Judge Hamilton says, although 41 have failed to live up to their promise to abandon the promiscuous path.

10 GO TO LANCASTER Ten boys have been sent to the Lancaster farm and 7 girls to the Delaware industrial school. Four boys have been re-committed and one returned. One girl has been returned to Lancaster. Three children have been turned over to the bureau of juvenile research for psychological observation.

One boy has been sentenced to Mansfield reformatory as a contributor to the delinquency of a girl. One woman is in Marysville reformatory for girls on a similar charge. Four have been sentenced to Toledo workhouse and four to the county jail.

"Young people meet in dance halls and go for a ride in a car later," said the court, "A pocket flask is introduced, records of many cases show. Later we get the case—when it's too late."

"Parents are more to blame than the young people. Desire for romance and love of excitement and adventure too frequently, we find, caused the first mis-steps."

CLOSE WEEK OF PRAYER Annual Week of Prayer, held during the past week in St. Mary's, will close on Friday evening. Rev. Walter Rickarz, pastor of St. Paul Reformed church, will preach the closing sermon, services to be held at the Baptist church. Collections made during the week will be used in relieving the poor of St. Mary's.

BIRTH RATE STILL ON SLUMP

Situation in France Is Pictured as Alarming

INFANT MORTALITY GROWS

Country Declared Threatened With Depopulation

PARIS — (United Press) — France today is face to face with a peril greater than that of any foreign invasion.

For twenty years her birth rate has steadily diminished and figures recently published show that the hoped-for improvement that was to follow the war has not materialized. The dark cloud of depopulation more than ever before casts its shadow over the future of the French nation.

M. Paul Strauss, minister of hygiene, has just announced the foundation of a "National Committee" to encourage childbirth and combat infant mortality. In an address before a distinguished gathering of leaders at the University of Paris he cited statistics and declared that France, if she hopes to live as a great power, must cease to be indifferent.

"For twenty years," he said, "our birth rate has decreased while infant mortality has risen in disquieting proportions. Meanwhile the menace becomes greater every day."

He outlined what amounts to a nation-wide campaign to encourage newly-married persons to have children and to teach young mothers how to raise healthy children. He addressed his appeal to every man and woman in France.

TENDENCY A MYSTERY — Just why the new tendency toward a certain area in Europe should develop a tendency toward race suicide while neighboring races, separated only by imaginary boundaries, increase and grow stronger, is a mystery even to those who have made child bearing the study of a lifetime.

Undoubtedly the modern standard of morality in France has something to do with her falling birthrate. But there are other countries in Europe where the moral sentiments as they prevail in America are just as rare as they are in France. It would seem, therefore, that the true reason lies in another direction.

The French are not poor as a nation, yet much of their prosperity is unreal. There is very little unemployment, but a great deal of under-payment. That is to say, until a man has reached the age of thirty or more, he seldom receives a salary sufficient to support a wife.

That is the generally accepted reason for the astounding number of little "menages" in Paris and elsewhere which do not possess the sanction of marriages. The young bank clerk or motor-bus operator and his "friend" share the expenses of a little flat.

Obviously, children under an arrangement of that kind would be inconvenient and something to be avoided at all costs. Unwedded unions are not permanent, while children are. Still that could not account for more than a small part of the decrease in childbirth.

The chief blame rests on those who are married and fail to fulfill their "obligations to the race."

Leaders are frankly discouraged. Speeches and press campaigns have for years condemned unproductive marriages. Law after law aimed to encourage the bearing of children even to the point of offering premiums for large families have proved ineffective. The French are not poor as a nation, yet much of their prosperity is unreal. There is very little unemployment, but a great deal of under-payment. That is to say, until a man has reached the age of thirty or more, he seldom receives a salary sufficient to support a wife.

and also the customs office has moved its papers and books from Bochum, fearing invasion by the French. It has been unofficially reported the next move of the Ruhr forces would be to enclose Bochum. Early today there was no evidence that the French had marched beyond Essen.

FACTORIES TO CLOSE — ESSEN.—(Associated Press).—All the factories will close next Monday morning from 11 to 11.15 o'clock, in protest against the occupation. The committee directing the demonstration represents all political parties. Railway traffic will stop for ten minutes at the same hour.

BOLESHVIK PILOT CHARGED — PARIS.—(United Press).—An international communist plot which was to bring the Bolshevik army across Germany to the banks of the Rhine and thence into France, was charged today against Deputy Cachelin, the communist leader arrested in Thursday's roundup.

The minister of justice filed a request that the claim of deputies raise Cachelin's parliamentary immunity so that he might be arrested and prosecuted on this charge. Cachelin, Moisseuseau Semard and Trelent are to be accused of fomenting a revolution in Germany, in which the Russian army was to invade Poland and Sweden, to stir up revolutionary troubles in Germany and Poland, basing their action on the Ruhr occupations. This would give Russia's red army an excuse to march thru Poland into Germany and intervene, aiding the proletarian revolution.

BRITAIN STANDS PAT — LONDON.—(Associated Press).—The British government will give no recognition to the German protest against the French advance in the Ruhr, which the Berlin government addressed to the allies last night and in no way will the protest affect British action or policy, it was authoritatively stated this afternoon.

Whenever it becomes necessary, the British representatives on the various inter-allied commissions will absent themselves in order to demonstrate the British disassociation with the present French action on the Ruhr.

Otherwise it was decided, Great Britain would continue to act wholeheartedly with the allies.

SPARE OF SIEGE — ESSEN.—(Associated Press).—General Degoutte today issued a proclamation from Duesseldorf establishing a state of siege throughout the newly occupied territory. The German laws, it was stipulated, would remain in force.

REV. HUECKER DEPICTS "BEN HUR" FOR STUDENTS — At the regular Thursday afternoon mass meeting, Rev. Samuel Huecker gave a reading "The Chariot Race from Ben Hur" before students of Central High school.

Rev. Huecker gave a narrative form the story up until the time of the race and the reason why Ben Hur desired to defeat the pride of the Roman people.

Otherwise it was decided, Great Britain would continue to act wholeheartedly with the allies.

MOTHER, 2 BARRIES DIE IN FIRE

Toll Taken by Flames in Homes at Chicago

ANOTHER PROBABLY BLINDED

Eight Blocks of Georgia Town Swept by Blaze

CHICAGO — (United Press) — A mother and two babies were dead and another mother probably blinded for life today as the result of fires which swept their homes.

A better burst in the apartment building in which Mrs. F. A. Baumann lived. Mrs. Baumann grabbed her two-year-old boy and dashed for the street. Firemen found them in a hallway. The baby was dead and Mrs. Baumann died later.

Mrs. Roy Hankmeyer was at the grocery when she discovered her home in flames. She dashed into the building despite efforts of firemen to prevent her. Firemen later found her in the kitchen clutching her son Donald, 3, to her breast. The baby was dead. Mrs. Hankmeyer was probably blinded.

TOWN FIRE-SWEPT — FLOVILLA, Ga.—(United Press).—The business district of Flovilla was in ashes today as the result of a fire which swept eight blocks causing loss estimated at $150,000.

The fire started in a blacksmith shop and fanned by a high wind jumped from one building to another. Within an hour the flames had razed the business section.

Without water protection the citizens formed a bucket brigade and fought the flames.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION WORK TO BE SHOWN BY PUPILS — Extent and scope of physical education work being done in the Central junior high school will be shown Friday night at an exhibition to be given by the pupils in the gymnasium.

The program, which is under the direction of L. M. Blackburn and Miss Florence Brown, will be taken on from the regular class drills and will include relay games, formal gymnastics and folk dancing.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonsful of Mulsified in a cup of glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified coconut oil in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.

DEWEESE TO JOIN DEISEL-WEMMER

Sells Sign Business to Company; Is Ad Manager

Confirmation of the sale of the DeWeese Sign company to the Deisel-Wemmer company was made Friday by Walt G. DeWeese, former head of the concern. DeWeese will be associated with the cigar company, in charge of advertising.

DeWeese established his sign business 13 years ago and built it up from a shoestring to a going concern. He was in the business of manufacturing signs, displays and theatrical scenery, in a factory located at 414 1-2 N. Main-st.

The Deisel-Wemmer company has taken over the DeWeese studio and is remodeling the interior. It will be used as offices and work rooms for the company's advertising.

"I go with the plant," declared DeWeese Friday. "There is practically no change, except that I am to devote my entire time to getting out advertising for the Deisel-Wemmer company."

The cigar company is to enter into an advertising campaign of nationwide scope. In order to secure DeWeese's entire services for the drive, it was necessary to take over his factory and business.

Interior of the sign factory is being remodeled. Show rooms and studios are being provided. Part of the program will be the creation of window displays by DeWeese. Photographs will be taken of them and sent out to dealers to give them new ideas on window displays in selling cigars.

Signs and outdoor advertising of all sorts will be manufactured.

HAMMER MURDERESS SOUGHT HERE; AID OF SHERIFF IS SOUGHT IN PHILLIPS CASE

Search for Clara Phillips, "Lammer murderess," whose sensational escape from Los Angeles—co jail cheated the law of vengeance, has reached Allen-co.

Circulars describing the former chorus beauty and bearing her likeness have been sent to Sheriff Harvey Crosson, by Sheriff William L. Traeger, of Los Angeles.

A double reward totaling $1,000 is offered for Clara's recapture. Of this sum $750 is offered by the supervisors of the county and the remainder is pledged personally by Sheriff Traeger.

The circular describes the woman as a former chorus girl, with extremely small feet, wearing a one and a half shoe. She speaks with a slow southern drawl.

"She is a sporting type of girl," says the circular, "and is fond of smoking cigarettes."

A trace has ever been found of the woman since she sawed her way out of jail and escaped.

INSPECTORS TO MEET
George Gableman and George Dushman, state inspectors going over the accounts of the City of Lima, attended the semi-annual meeting of the state auditors connected with the state auditing department in Columbus, Friday. Meetings are held in January and July for the general instruction of the workers.

GEORGE A. BOUND, Plymouth, Pa., mine foreman, who says he would not take a fortune for the good Tanlac has done him.

"I wouldn't take a fortune for the good Tanlac did me," declared George A. Bound, well known mine foreman, residing at 219 E. Shawnee Ave., Plymouth, Pa.

"I suffered for five years from stomach trouble, nervousness, awful headaches, sleeplessness, and constipation. I had practically no appetite, and even the little I did manage to eat upset my stomach so bad I was in misery. I was badly run-down and kept losing weight till I was simply in wretched condition."

"But after taking Tanlac a short time I was feeling like a new man. My appetite is ravenous now; I never have indigestion, sleep like a top and always feel ready for a big day's work."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.

OH BOY! LOOK AT 'EM!

Who says the Lyric is not coming across with the real pictures? Just look at them. Remembering the really big, meritorious productions of the past four weeks, cast your eyes over what is coming. James Oliver Curwood's great story, "The Man From Hell's River," starting Sunday and running for three days to be followed by a picture of nearly equal merit for the balance of the week—"Who Are My Parents?" For the following Sunday, Jan. 21, "Only a Shop Girl," a wonderful production which smashed all records last week at the Princess theater in Springfield, Ohio; then for one whole week, starting Sunday, Jan. 28th, Booth Tarkington's masterpiece, "The Flirt," a production which everywhere is leaping into the limelight as one of the greater successes of the screen. Who says that the Lyric is not coming across with the real pictures. To miss the Lyric is to pass up the best entertainment features in Lima.

LONDON IS HIT BY HAIL OF DEATH

Drug Traffic Threatens More Damage Than World War

DIRECTED FROM HAMBURG

Operation Aided By English Men And Women

(By LAYNE C. WILSON)
LONDON — (United Press) — Underworld artillery, belching projectiles more deadly than steel and T. N. T., is in action 24 hours a day in the freepart of Hamburg, and the target of this gruesome hail is England.

More sinister than wars, of armed men this vicious offensive of the German half-world is of the subtle, utterly destructive sort that alarm writers prophesy will mark the next holocaust of nations.

No mere armistice can hinder it. A peace treaty is useless. Yet England is as surely under a deadly fire as the memorable meeting on November 11, 1918, had never occurred.

The human debris left in the wake of this monstrous engagement is composed of wrecks more heart rending than the blind, the lame and the maimed heritage of the World War.

English men and women themselves are aiding the successful operation of the unseen army. Practically they strain to assure success to those who plot their ruin. They would be the last to admit that a war is in progress. Unconsciously by international courtesy, without the pale of decent humanity, it is here, nevertheless.

WAR OF DRUGS
An English weekly magazine has exposed the master plotters in Hamburg. Their slimy tentacles are coiling about the very heart of England.

Scum from the ships of every nation has left its quota of indecency at Hamburg. The cunning and calm of the Orient has vied with the less advanced talent of the Occident in giving the half world of Hamburg the most subtly degenerate means of entertainment.

Denizens of the Hamburg dens of horror have discovered that the golden key to excess is represented in the little packets of opium and its derivatives delivered to England.

It was no special hatred of the English that directed the flood of drugs toward London. England is the best market because highest prices are obtainable there. Highest prices are obtained because efforts to keep the drugs out are less sincere in other countries.

In Hamburg, according to the report just published, cocaine in ounce packages may be obtained for the equivalent of a few pennies in English money. Transported a few miles across the gleaming water of the channel the little packets appreciate in price many thousand per cent. It is a means of soft livelihood that cannot be overlooked.

The drug is smuggled over by sailors. Some come across in shipments of German goods. A few highly connected firms, principally those that supply the wealthy snow enfilers or the English wholesalers, send private messengers with thousands of dollars represented by the little packets secreted at their persons and in their luggage. Hardly a day passes but there is a dope arrest or a death chronicled which is attributed to the drug. Pleadably Circus, the hub of London's night life, is the most frequent scene of arrests.

Illegitimate from sunset until midnight by hundreds of women who must have the precious powder to steel themselves to the lives they lead, the Circus offers bounteous harvest to one with the cocaine and the nerve to sell it.

Profits are rich. Even for effecting the introduction of addict to one who is in a position to supply the drug will often bring a handsome tip from both parties.

Women haunt Pleadably and its dark side streets. Their ranks are thinned by the law and by the horrible deaths so frequently the reward of the followers of such a life. There is no falling off in the nightly numbers. The night clubs keep the supply coming in steadily.

The drug agent gets his soon after the pounding of the streets begins. It doesn't take much of the vicious circling about gaudy, crimson-lit Pleadably Circus to turn the wary girl to anything that promises relief.

That drugs are coming into England in a growing stream is certain. The investigator just returned from Hamburg is convinced that the headquarters of the poravering is located in the underworld of Hamburg.

It is an attack, without particular malice by the poor victims of the defeated country, and unless it is checked may do harm comparable to that wrought by the belching guns of the World War.

DRINK WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Pains or Bladder is Irritated

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the salts often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids; to help cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste, eat four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the field of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

DESPOUND FARMER EMULATES FATHER; IS SUICIDE BY HANGING

Walter Miller, 31, Mercer-co farmer, hanged himself to a cross beam in a barn on his farm, six miles west of Mendon, late Thursday. The body was found by his widow when search was started after he had been missing from the farm for eight hours. Despondency, caused by ill health, is believed to have prompted the act. Miller's father, Frank Miller, suicided 20 years ago, by shooting.

Besides the widow, two small children, Velma Jane, 8 and Dorothy Lee, 3, and four brothers and four sisters, survive.

Funeral services Sunday at 2 p. m. from the Salem church, Rev. C. Hance of Lima, officiating. Interment at Salem cemetery.

BLUE TRIANGLE CLUB DISCUSSES IDEAL GIRL

"The Ideal Girl" was the subject for discussion at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Blue Triangle club at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday night.

Characteristics and ideals of the typical American girl were dealt with in detail. All of the girls in the club took part in the discussion, which was led by Miss Dorothy Lawson, president.

Plans for a party to be given in the Y. W. C. A. room on January 27 were approved. In this event, members of the club will invite boy friends and will endeavor to show the work of the club. Miss Jeanette Stuart is in charge of the entertainment.

Monford Slagle

For Your Back and Kidneys You Will Have Vigorous Vitality if You Follow This Advice

Columbus, Ohio.—"Dr. Pierce's Anuric (Kidney and Backache) Tablets are the best medicine I have ever taken for kidney ailments. My kidneys were congested and inactive, my back ached and was so sore I could not bear to touch it. In addition to my kidney aching, my bladder was very weak. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice and upon his advice I took the Anuric Tablets and the result was wonderful. I had taken Anuric only a very short time when I was rid of all my bladder weakness and my kidneys became active and normal. I do not suffer any more with my back. I would advise those who suffer with any kidney disorder or bladder trouble to take 'Anuric' without delay."

Monford Slagle, 447 W. Rich St.

Help your weakened kidneys by obtaining this "Anuric" (anti-uric acid) of Dr. Pierce at your nearest drug store or send 10c for trial pkg. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for free medical advice.

MOTHER LOVE TRIUMPHS; MRS. M'KENNA NEAR SON

Mother love for an erring son triumphed when Mary McKenna, 72, after a long journey and search obtained employment in a Lima cafe. She came from Clarinda, Iowa, in order to be near her boy, Thomas McKenna, 42, inmate of the Lima State hospital.

Mrs. McKenna was a prominent figure in the trial of her son three years ago when he was convicted of the murder of Patrolman William Dreesch, in 1918.

While in prison he went on a hunger strike and was found insane and transferred to Lima state hospital. "I can see him whenever I can get out to the hospital," declared his mother. Dr. Clark has promised me.

UNCLE SAM TO AID THRIFT WEEK SAYS IT WORKED WONDERS

Postoffice Department Takes Hand in Project

Uncle Sam will take a hand in Thrift Week this year, Postmaster A. E. Gale has been notified. Specially prepared cards printed in colors and announcing Thrift Week are to be distributed January 17, Franklin's birthday. The campaign will continue seven days.

While the cards will primarily urge the starting of a postal savings account, they will also carry a general message, urging economy and pointing out the advantages of laying aside a certain amount each week for the future.

Approximately 5,000,000 of the cards will be distributed from the 6,000 post-offices having postal savings departments. One will be placed in each city, rural and postoffice mail box.

At the same time banners will be displayed on all vehicles in the postal service, proclaiming Thrift Week and bearing a portrait of Benjamin Franklin.

Active cooperation between the general Thrift Week committee for Lima, J. E. Galvin, chairman, and the post-office department will be seen and every effort will be made to increase interest in the regular saving of money and the practicing of economy.

Starting of a bank account, budgeting of expenses, carrying of life insurance, purchase of a home, payment of bills promptly, making of a will and sharing with others will be stressed during the week campaign.

While the project is under the direction of the general committee from the International Young Men's Christian association, all interests in the community are planning to aid in the promulgation of the thrift lessons.

SOLICITORS WORK IN 3 TOWNSHIPS FOR MEMBERS OF ALLEN-CO FARM BODY

Thirty solicitors from the Allen-co Farm bureau were canvassing Jackson, Richland and American-tps, Thursday, in the interest of three-year memberships.

Five teams of two men each were working in each township. It is believed that the work in American-tps will be completed Friday and the other two by the end of the week.

Response to solicitation has been very good. W. R. Price, president, said Thursday. While many farmers are not at home when the workers call, those who are seen are very much interested in the project.

Results of the first week's work will be summed up at a meeting to be held in the chamber of commerce auditorium Saturday at 10 a. m. All workers in the county will meet for instructions.

Terrible Agony in Stomach Has Been Relieved by the Plant Juice

IS JUST FEELING FINE NOW

"I am surely glad to recommend your Plant Juice for its action is just wonderful," said Mrs. J. Sprinkle, of Harrod, Ohio, R. F. D. No. 2, during a recent conversation with The Plant Juice Man at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima.

MRS. J. SPRINKLE

Mrs. Sprinkle is well known in Lima, having many friends here. Continuing, she said:

"For months I had suffered the most terrible agony in my stomach. I didn't eat much but just what little I ate would cause terrible gas pains. I would blast after eating the lightest kind of food. I also had pains in my head and limbs and was so nervous I could not sleep, and night after night I would lie awake until one or two o'clock in the morning. I felt so tired and weak that I could hardly move."

"I read about your Plant Juice and have now taken four bottles and it has just worked wonders for me. I can eat anything I want without the slightest distress afterward; have no more gas or bloating and the soreness is all gone from my stomach. I have been relieved of the pains in my head and limbs and am able now to sleep soundly all through the night. I am gaining weight and do not feel tired and weak as I did before and, in short, am feeling fine."

Many people say Plant Juice seems to act like magic in cases of stomach, liver and kidney troubles. It is made from the juices of medicinal plant life and has given relief in more than a million cases in all parts of the United States.

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

MEXICO'S HOPE IN RURAL LIFE

Francisco Villa Talks Of His Country's Future

URGES PLENTY OF SCHOOLS

Community's Life Is Agriculture, Former Outlaw Says

(BY FRED G. NEUMIER)
MEXICO CITY. — (United Press) — "The life of a community is agriculture. If we want to become a great and respected nation we must begin with plenty of schools."

"The future of the nation is in its rural life, in the instruction of the rural classes, although the intellectuals may deny it."

These are not expressions of a Mexican educator. They are the expressions of none other but Mexico's former famous outlaw, Francisco Pancho Villa.

These statements were made to Miss Esperanza Velasquez Bringas, pretty twenty year old Mexican, who boarded the former outlaw in his "den" at his ranch home in Cuatitlan. She is believed to be one of the first women in years to interview the former "guerrilla" head. She is employed in the federal department of education and is investigating the problem incident to the instruction of the native race.

Miss Bringas has told me the story of her visit to Cuatitlan and her impressions. She said: "When we arrived at Parral by train we noticed a group of armed men. Frontier types they were. Tall and robust, each with pistols and rifle and three of four well filled cartridge belts."

"It was General 'Pancho' Villa and his escorts planning to return to Rosario and then to his home at Cuatitlan."

"I could hardly believe that the former chief of the famous division of the north stood before me."

"As we sat in conversation I watched and noted each of the phrases used by the ex-revolutionary who has exchanged his life of hazard for agricultural pursuits. Villa has learned to be amiable, or perhaps he is so by nature, and in his unpolished speech often expresses significant ideas. At times his talk gave me the impression of a crude far containing some fine essence. It is a rare case of simple intelligence. He appears to possess behind his broad forehead and bright eyes the gift of clear vision."

"When we reached Rosario, the end of the railroad line, the general asked us that we would have to remain overnight, as it was still a few days to Cuatitlan, where he lived."

"I sent a car for you at five in the morning," he said. "I'm taking this precaution because you know Villa is a revolutionary leader. He killed recently by federal forces a man who had been a few days ago in the city. I have my men ready to fight any enemy of peace and order and I'm sure he wouldn't attempt to attack us, but it would be better to make the trip by day."

"He then drove off to his home in a carriage."

"We left the next morning and arrived at Cuatitlan at three o'clock in the afternoon."

"General Villa received us and his greeting was 'Come right into the next room.' We are holding dinner for you."

"His affability really astonished me."

"We entered the dining room, a spacious room, redecorated with the scent of fruit and rose water, a dining room with a patriarchal table such as those of which Francisco Villa talks."

"Betty, the general's wife, saw to it that we were served a bounteous repast, a delicious soup, mutton and vegetables."

"When I first came here," said

FOURTH WIFE ASKS DIVORCE

Mrs. Elvira Bruguere, fourth wife of Dr. Peder Sather Bruguere, San Francisco millionaire, is seeking a divorce. Two of Peder's other wives divorced him and a third died.

the general, 'I had to roast a little corn and grind it up with some rocks to make gruel. There wasn't a thing to eat, nor nobody to sell anything, as there were no towns anywhere near. I've had to set about building up farms, and little by little the people have come. Today, now, we have meat, corn cakes, milk. We don't lack a thing and that in just in two years. How does that look to you?'"

"The latter sentence is an habitual expression with the general."

"After a long conversation we retired to sleep. I was assigned to a bedroom, that Betty's, the room being occupied by General Villa's daughters and my cot was placed near those three winsome little girls, Michaela, Celia and Juana Maria."

DELPHOS FAIR TO GET STATE AID

Tri-County Body Also to Join Ohio Fair Boys

State aid for the Delphos Tri-county Fair association is promised as the result of a meeting of the Ohio Fair Boys' association and a conference with Charles V. Truax, new secretary of the Ohio-Agricultural board, by H. D. Bickel and Henry A. Lang, of Delphos.

A section of the laws governing fairs will make it possible for the tri-county organization to secure aid, Bickel and Lang reported. They conferred with Truax Tuesday and Thursday.

It will be possible to secure annually a sum equal to 100 per cent of the amount paid in regular class premiums at the fair, but not to exceed $500. The money will be distributed among the counties interested, which in this case are Allen, Putnam and Van Wert, and the burden is borne according to population revealed by the last federal census. Fair officials understand the aid is only possible in event an association has conducted three fairs. It will be necessary to stage the 1923 event on the Delphos Tri-county Fair association's own plans, after which a report is made and the money ordered by the auditor on the treasurer for payment.

Report blanks were secured by Bickel and Lang. They will also make reports for the fairs of the last two years.

Decision to take out membership in the Ohio Fair Boys' association was made. It is the second organization of its kind entered by the tri-county organization, the other being the Ohio Fair circuit. The president H. D. Bickel, will call a meeting soon.

COURT AND JURY HEARS SECOND TRIAL OF SUIT FOR COLLECTION OF $35

Dispute over collection of a $35 note is being tried out before Judge Fred C. Becker and a jury in common pleas court for a second time.

J. M. Smith, grocer, W. North-st., is seeking to obtain a $35 judgment from E. D. Simmons, collector. A previous judgment obtained by Smith was carried up to appeals court and reversed.

Jury hearing the case is composed of Mr. Oren Dickenson, John Keville, J. E. Steiner, Henry Dusenberry, Catherine Cullen, Ralph Dawson, Elmer Stose, Ed E. Ulrich, T. C. Lewis, Sam Laver, W. C. Rhoda and V. E. Stepleton.

MOTHER OF 12 CHILDREN DIES AT DELPHOS HOME; HAS CHILDREN IN LIMA

Twelve children survive Mrs. Catherine Kundert, 74, wife of Henry Kundert, Elm-st., Delphos, who died Thursday night at 7:30 after an illness extending over three years. She suffered a paralytic stroke and her last illness began three weeks ago.

The children are: Charles Kundert and Mrs. Robert Thomas, Lima; John Kundert, Jacob Kundert, Chris Kundert, Mrs. Edward Mox, near Delphos; Fred Kundert and Mrs. Irwin Mox, Delphos; H. C. Kundert, Kansas City; William Kundert, Toledo; George Kundert, New York city and Oscar Kundert, Cuyahoga Falls.

Besides the husband, Henry Kundert, a veteran of the civil war, a brother Jacob Binder, Isabelle, Oklahoma, survive Mrs. Kundert. There are 23 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Kundert was born in Wittenburg, Germany, and came to this country at an early age. She was married to Henry Kundert November 5, 1870.

Funeral will be held Sunday, but no definite arrangements have been completed.

DELPHOS MAN, A. KLOEPPPEL, DIES IN TOLEDO HOSPITAL

Word was received by relatives in Delphos Friday morning that Amos Kloepfel, 69, died at the Toledo state hospital, where he was taken several weeks ago, protracted illness having undermined his mind as well as physical body. Death was due to heart trouble and dropsy.

Kloepfel resided on E. Third-st. Two months ago he eluded a guard stationed at his bedside and ran a mile, clad only in his night clothes.

before he was finally found in the yard of the Griffith Produce company. He was adjudged insane shortly after by Probate Judge J. H. Hamilton, Lima.

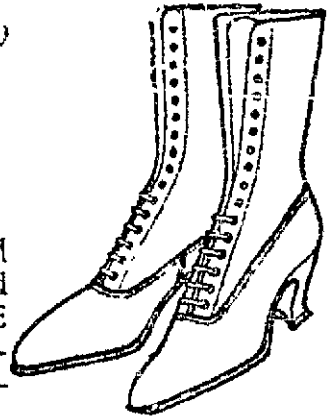

Kloepfel is survived by his widow and four children Fred, Herman and Albert Kloepfel, at home, and Mrs. Alma Geisinger, Sidney.

Funeral will probably be held Monday at 2 p. m. at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Delphos, in charge of Rev. J. C. Mittonmaier.

FLOATING SCHOOL IS PLANNED

Will be Conducted Aboard Trans-Atlantic Liner

ORGANIZED AT ATLANTA

Students to Study Foreign Lands on Cruise

(BY DON HINGA)
ATLANTA, Ga., (United Press)—A "floating school" to be held aboard a trans-Atlantic liner and which would enable students to secure a practical education as they toured each foreign land about which they studied, is being organized in Atlanta.
Asa G. Candler, Jr., son of the millionaire Coca-Cola manufacturer, and Major E. T. Wilson, wealthy Atlantian and prominent educator, are sponsoring the unique educational venture.
A charter was granted recently by the state of Georgia to the "Candler Floating Schools Company," of which Candler and Winston are the promoters. The company was organized with a capitalization of $100,000 with the privilege that it could later be increased to $1,000,000.
According to present plans the "school" will sail from Baltimore next September, aboard the liner Logan, for a cruise around the world. The Logan is at present enroute from San Francisco, to Baltimore where it will be renovated and outfitted as a "floating school."
ONLY BOYS ALLOWED
Only boys will be allowed to enter this school on its first trip, Colonel Winston said. Later girls may be admitted but the matter has not been definitely decided upon, he said.
A moderate tuition fee will be charged each student, Winston said. The amount of the fee has not yet been decided upon, he said.
An enrollment of between three hundred and four hundred high school students, together with a faculty of twenty-five or more of the leading professors of the country will sail as passengers on the first trip of the vessel, the promoters said.
Dr. Zubulon Judd, formerly a member of the faculty of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Alabama, will be director of the educational division of the "floating school." "We will have a faculty of twenty-five or more of the best high school professors in the United States," Dr. Judd stated. "We will select the best men that good salaries and the advantage of travel will secure."

The studies to be pursued will be similar to the courses taught in accredited high schools. Special instructions in steamship and wireless telegraphy will be afforded to those who desire it, he said.
Plans for the school, which were first advanced by Winston, were inspired, he said, by the present social conditions, which he declares exert a demoralizing influence upon high school students and prevent them securing the best results from their schooling.
"In modern times there are too many things, such as dances and shows, that detract the minds of young people from their school work," Winston said. "In the case of our schools such hindrance will be removed and while the boys are pursuing their studies, they will be given the advantages of travel, which is the ideal education."

EMPARGO MODIFIED
Change in provision of the Pennsylvania railroad freight embargo enables shippers to send freight eastward from Mansfield. The embargo now limits shipments only to Columbus and Dresden, according to an announcement at the Delphos headquarters of the company.

DEATH RATE OF INFANTS IN ALLEN CO IS BELOW AVERAGE, REPORT SHOWS

Infant mortality rate in Allen Co is below the average of the United States, according to the annual report on vital statistics compiled by Dr. Sutter, county health commissioner, showing the county's rate to be 64 out of 1,000. The percentage for the United States is 70 out of 1,000.
According to the report, 252 persons died in the county during the past year, outside of Lima and Delphos, this being 24 less than in 1921 and 83 less than in 1920. Of this number, 27 occurred at the Lima State hospital, 13 at the District Tuberculosis hospital and six at the county infirmary.

Exactly the same number of births were recorded in 1922 as in 1921, there being 493 babies born in each year.
Pneumonia claimed the greatest number for death in the county, a total of 39, with heart trouble second at 28 and apoplexy claimed 31.

Of the 493 children born in 1922, 245 were boys and 254 girls. Twins were born in four instances.
Eight deaths were attributed to accident and three to suicide.

COGNOVIT JUDGMENTS
Cognovit judgments in the sum of $342 against Elmer Elwood and $321 against Ross and Hazel Baker, were granted the H. P. Maus Piano company in common pleas court Thursday.

REDUCE OVERLAND PLANT
Building permit for the repair of the Lima Overland building, 307 W. Market-st., was issued at city hall Friday. Work will be done by the O.R. Green Co., and at least $25,000 will be expended. Work was started Thursday. A permit for the erection of a $200 garage at 816 E. Elm-st., was also issued Thursday.

Your Money

Sell It In The Highest Market!

When you lend money, do you take a low rate of interest, or do you sell your money in the highest market?

Money has a value just the same as any other article. You may invest it securely at 3%. Anybody can do that, or you may invest it securely at 8%. That requires good judgment and the ability to judge of opportunities.

NOT FOR LONG

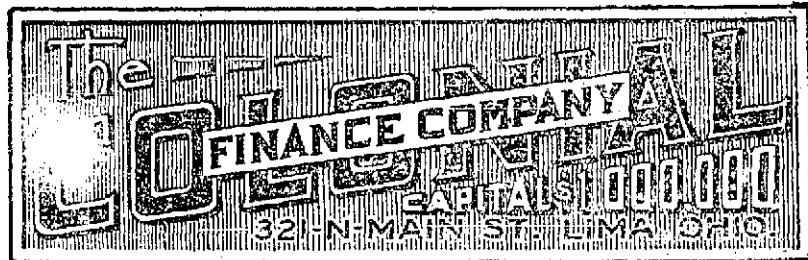

The opportunity we offer for the investment of your money at 8% is, we believe, unusual. Not for long will the market value of money be as high as it is today, for money is getting easier the country over, and the man who makes an 8% investment now will forestall the time when money may be had for less.

Behind the money you may invest here is a rapidly growing business, with over a million dollars of quick assets.

Any officer of this company will be glad to explain to you our plan of working, show you its solidity and convince you of the advantage to yourself of getting the full market value of your money.

I've Never Mixed Yeast With My Price Tags

Some merchants think that all price tags are good for is to feed them yeast. Yeast is alright in mother's bread dough, but when a "rise" affects the dough in your pocket, that's a horse of another color. "The store that undersells them all."

SEA BECOMES RUM BARGAIN TABLE

Lively Business Carried on by Fleet off Jersey Coast

COMPETITION IS KEEN

Thousands of Cases of Liquor Flow to U. S. Cities

HIGHLANDS, N. J.—(Associated Press)—The great rum fleet of 22 vessels, which bobbed up yesterday off Sandy Hook, while the New York dry naval squadron was being reorganized, was still standing off the Ambrose channel lightship today ready for business as usual.

While prohibition forces were taking to New York four small boats captured last night while attempting to land liquor from the mother ships, the rest of the welcoming fleet of 50 were racing back and forth between the rum carriers and shore.

Altho observers ashore estimated that thousands of cases had been landed last night, the rum fleet, presumably hailing from the Bahamas, had a vast stock still to dispose of to bidders putting out from this resort and other places along the coast. Liquor landed last night was reported to have been sent by motor truck to New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other cities.

COMPETITION KEEN
Whisky, gin, champagne and wine all were offered for sale, and keen competition has developed among the skippers of the rum ships.

As the bootlegger runs alongside in his power boat, he scans signs hung over the sides of the mother ships and decides from which he will purchase. The signs inform the bottle fishermen that Scotch whisky of such and such brand may be had at $45 to $50 a case. Rye was quoted at $35. Champagne was higher. The sea began to take on the appearance of a bargain counter.

The visiting flotilla flies the flags of many nations and the crews are of all races. The vessels are loaded to the gunwales with liquor.

"I saw 5,000 cases in one pile on one boat," declared a gray-haired runner who brought his boat safely past the coast guard and revenue craft last night. "You can get anything you want. Cheap, too."

BOOTLEGGERS FEARLESS
Bootlegging circles here display no fear, despite the capture of four of their best boats last night. Thousands of cases moved out of the town all night by motor trucks and passenger cars. The last left at 7 o'clock this morning in five big motor vans, 4,000 cases.

The power boats taken last night were the Margaret B., a cabin cruiser; the Evelyn, sea skiff; the Nanna and Ida, fishing power boat hailing from Camden, Maine, and an unnamed launch newly built and on her first bootlegging jaunt.

Another alleged bootlegger was chased, but jettisoned her cargo and submitted to a search. She was released.

One man who escaped capture last night by jumping ashore was ready today to take another of his boats out to the rum fleet.

"What do I care for the boat lost last night," he said laughing. "The pool will pay me insurance for both boat and cargo."

He refused to give details of the pool, admitting, however, that there was a powerful and wealthy runners organization here and that all of its members were protected against losses.

Highlands is only one of the busy bootlegger havens in the New York waters. Some local runners asserted that the countless power boats that visited the rum fleet yesterday hailed from many points along the Jersey, Long Island and New York coast.

Like Winter Flowers

—for they resembled flowers in winter! I found a group of new housefrocks on the Third floor among the more sombre colorings of mid-season coats, suits and dresses. Their colorings were vivid—orange, yellows, browns, soft tans, blues, and greys—a deep lavender, gay green, and black. Where one was simply designed the colors were especially gay—and if the shades were softer the frock was delightfully smart in style.

They remind one of a summer garden—and the gorgeous colorings of growing life. You'll enjoy working in them. $3.25 to $3.75 in splendid color fast materials.

Here's a Tip—

not quite large enough for an "ad" but certainly too important to overlook. There are about twelve dresses remaining from the sale at $1.75—mostly summer silks—but dresses that are worth twice their sale price, now, at $9.75. There are only a few of them—in small sizes—but the values are most extraordinary!

OFFICIALS NAMED IN LIQUOR CASE

List Turned Over to Dry Chief by Upshaw

RUM MARKED "DIPLOMATIC"

Booze Brought From Europe by Officer, Congressman Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Prior to a conference with prohibition officials today, Representative Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, announced that while he was armed with evidence relating to Volstead law violations by members of congress and high government officials, the names of alleged offenders, if made public, would have to come from Commissioner Haynes.

"I am giving to Mr. Haynes, the name of the official who recently returned from Europe with more than 20 cases of liquor marked 'diplomatic,' when he had no right to mark his contraband stuff," said Mr. Upshaw. "I am giving him also the name of a professional bootlegger who has been operating in the house office building, who was reported and fined several times, and immediately returned to his outlaw trade."

Activities of this bootlegger were recounted to the house this week by the Georgian, who read a letter from the daughter of a representative, the no names were mentioned.

SUPPLEMENTARY EVIDENCE
"The evidence I am laying before the commissioner is supplementary to the outline in my charges to the house," said Mr. Upshaw. "Only yesterday I received information of a startling nature which will be the basis for a sensational investigation by the bureau."

At prohibition headquarters Mr. Upshaw spent some time with Assistant Commissioner Jones and when he left he said he had submitted evidence of violation of the prohibition law in official Washington "so flagrant as to call for immediate drastic action."

The Georgia representative said he was "especially outraged" by evidence which had been put in his hands and given by him to Mr. Jones, "concerning the liquor leakage from some foreign embassies here." He declared that any ambassador permitting such a leak "should be made persona non grata to the American government."

Mr. Jones described the information laid before him by the Georgia representative as similar to the numerous "leads" which come to the bureau every day from law-loving citizens. He said the prohibition authorities would investigate each of the cases reported in the regular way and would take action according to the facts.

Mr. Jones declined to say whether specific names and places were mentioned in the data given him, but said "one embassy" was connected with the Georgia member's charges.

Hutchins is a California naturalist. He will give a series of nature programs at the Trinity M. E. church next week.

He is perhaps one of the best known bird experts in the United States and his programs deal with birds, their life and their songs. He draws a picture of the bird and then whistles their songs.

Talks will be given four evenings next week. Monday, Birdland and wonderland. Wednesday, America's seven greatest birds. Friday, why birds sing. Saturday, 3 p. m., children's hour with American birds. Evening meetings will begin at 7:30. Admission free.

KINSEY'S FINE BUT $300

IF HE GETS OUT OF CITY

Ray Kinsey, 28, N. Central-av, arrested several days ago on a charge of possession of illicit liquor and who pleaded not guilty, changed his plea in criminal court Thursday afternoon to guilty.

Kinsey was fined $1,000, of which he paid $200. Under the condition that he leave Lima, $700 of Kinsey's fine was suspended and he is to be allowed to pay the balance of $100 in installments.

DEATHS GAIN IN CITY; DECREASE IN COUNTY

Deaths in Lima in 1922 increased, while those in the county decreased, according to report of J. R. Poling, city health commissioner. The city's birth rate decreased, while that of the county remained the same.

According to the report, 51 more persons died in 1922 in the city than in 1921 and the births were 20 less in 1922 than in 1921. In 1922, a total of 525 deaths were reported and 474 in 1921. There were 947 children born to Lima parents during the last year. Of this number, 491 were boys and 456 girls.

BOYCOTT THREAT BY COLLECTORS

Collecting agencies opposing the establishment of two municipal courts in Lima may boycott the city if a bill sponsored by the Allen-co Bar association, creating the courts, becomes a law.

Cases brought by collecting agencies against delinquent debtors can be tried before justices of the peace in Bath and Shawnee-tps, at little additional trouble, Ray Mauk, manager of the Pawcett Collecting company, asserts. Extra cost of such arrangement will fall on the defendants in debt suits, if the cases are won by the plaintiffs, he points out.

Petitions circulated by Mauk are being signed by many merchants who see added expense in the establishment of the courts.

Lawyers who favor the creation of the new courts assert that collecting agencies do not understand the features of the proposed bill, which they say has not been drafted.

Triangle Girls Discuss Ideals Of Both Sexes

The ideal boy — He is always a gentleman. He observes the niceties of etiquette. He is always considerate. He is athletic and is not afraid to get his hair mussed.

The ideal boy is the composite idea of the members of the Central High Blue Triangle club, who told what they admired and liked most in boys at their regular meeting Thursday afternoon.

In addition to this, the paragon must possess resourcefulness to the highest degree.

In discussing their own sex, the members of the club decided that the ideal girl must be evenly developed in body, mind and spirit.

She must be fond of athletics and must enjoy taking part in the milder, less strenuous sport.

She must be broadminded and must do considerable reading in order to keep abreast of the times on current events.

To be ideal in a spiritual way, the girl must be forgiving, sympathetic, frank, sincere and industrious.

During the discussion, the flapper was called upon to defend herself and the girls were almost unanimous in saying they thought extreme styles were worn simply because people criticized them, and would criticize flappers whether the styles were outlandish or not.

$25,000 IMPROVEMENT IS STARTED AT HOOVER-BOND STORE IN PUBLIC SQUARE

Work of completely altering the exterior and interior of the Hoover-Bond furniture store southeast corner of the public square, has been started.

The present front of the store and the show windows are to be torn out and a modern front is to be installed which includes display windows on the first and second floors.

In addition, an electric sign, 50 by 14 feet, is to be placed on the roof. A second luminous sign will be placed on the southwest corner of the building, which will be visible from every part of the square. Remodeling of the interior includes a complete redecoration of the first two floors, new electric system and the building of a beamed ceiling for the first floor.

Total cost of the work, which will require approximately six weeks to complete, will be over $25,000, it is said.

LIFE PERILED IN POLITICAL FIGHT

Irish Free State Leader Once Under Death Sentence

FINALLY SCORES VICTORY

Cosgrave Takes Places of Collins and Griffith

DUBLIN — (United Press) — W. T. Cosgrave stepped from the background to the forefront among Irish leaders when Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins took back to Dublin from London the treaty upon which the Irish Free State was founded.

There was a hurried cabinet meeting. De Valera, his vanity wounded at the definite conclusion of a treaty regarding whose details his word had not been the final one, refused to honor the signatures of the Irish negotiators, and split the Cabinet. Ministers divided, pro and anti-treaty. Cosgrave unhesitatingly threw in his lot with Griffith and Collins. Almost immediately came the fight in the Dail for approval of the treaty. De Valera, of course, was leader of the anti-treaty faction. Griffith and Collins led their side, but from the first day it was Cosgrave who stepped in when things looked bad.

When an argument arose over Parliamentary procedure, it was Cosgrave who used to arise and, suavely, with the air of a fond uncle to an unruly nephew, let the words De Valera down as gently as possible, but usually effectively. When De Valera or the fiery Cathal Brugha—killed in the Sackville-street fighting—refused to surrender—engaged in a particularly acrimonious debate with the truculent Griffith and boyish, impetuous Collins, Cosgrave it was who always smoothed the oratorical waters. He became immediately a large part of the works of the Irish governmental machine. But he was known still as the suave Cosgrave, quick at catching a weak point in an opponent's argument, smooth and calm in debate.

When Griffith's and Collins's tragic deaths followed in such quick succession, Cosgrave stepped smoothly, and it was to be shown as effectively, into their combined places.

It had been said of him that he was smooth, clever; his slim figure, reddish wavy hair, intelligently sharp features caused him sometimes to be termed fox.

LEADER WAS READY

When he stepped in the situation was desperate. Would the Leader—less Free State collapse, or develop a leader? Apparently Cosgrave had already developed and was catching the call. His smoothness became that of a rock against which the seas have broken only to wear away the rough edges. His foxiness seemed leonine.

Griffith and Collins, dreading the use of stern measures against their former comrades, put off the evil day when murder would be punished with death. Collins paid with his life for it.

Cosgrave, the smooth and fox, inaugurated the policy, upon the advice of Richard Mulcahy, minister for war, of sentencing to death and executing men caught in ambushes.

Cosgrave is forty years of age. He is a native of Dublin, and was educated at the Christian Brothers School there. When the Sinn Fein movement was launched, he joined immediately. Later he became a member of the Dublin municipal council, and interested himself in the great housing problem, long so acute in the poorer quarters of the city.

Sinn Fein was a political organization, and there grew up among the younger element of the National Volunteers, formed to fight openly for an Irish republic. Cosgrave was a member from this inception. When the organization became divided between the old Parliamentary leaders, who urged victory through legislation, and the champions of the militant course, Cosgrave went with the militants, a follower of Patrick Pearse, leader of the rebels.

He participated in the Easter Rebellion in 1916, and was sentenced to death for his activity. With others, he was reprieved and, in 1917, released.

At this time Sinn Fein began its political activities, and Cosgrave, one of its first candidates for the House of Commons, was elected. His victory was greeted as the first sign of the new order.

When Dail Eireann, the Irish Parliament, was established in 1919, Cosgrave became minister of local government. He is a moderate and far-sighted politician and is liked by everyone. The training he had received as chairman of the finance committee of the Dublin Corporation was helpful to him later, when he became head of the Free State government, in reorganizing the finance of the government.

GOETTLING PLEADS NOT GUILTY IN KEIM MURDER

Fred Goettling, former prisoner patient at the Lima State hospital, confessed as murderer in Cleveland, was arraigned in court in that city Friday on an indictment charging first degree murder of Harry Keim, hardware dealer, last Saturday night.

Goettling's trial was set for January 29.

OPEN LETTERS

To J. E. Morton

DEAR JIM: At last you are realizing your dream of years. You have, with the able assistance of a number of other men no less optimistic concerning the future of our fair city than yourself, brought about the merger of the Better Business Bureau and Chamber of Commerce into a concrete, compact organization with wonderful prospects and possibilities.

I was impressed with the fine spirit shown at the first annual meeting of the new body Wednesday night at which the final organization was effected. If it can be continued thru-out the coming year, and I see no reason why it can't with the backing already pledged, it will be possible for you to accomplish more in the way of civic betterment than has been produced in a long time.

That speech was a bell-ringer. I didn't know you had so much oratory in reserve, so much already having escaped, but it was not the flow of words particularly that made a hit with me; it was the things you said, all plain, cold facts with no extravagant promises you knew could not be kept.

The board of directors you will have needs no praises. Every man is known for his untiring efforts in behalf of his city and every one is capable and willing to tie the various interests of Lima into a force that will be irresistible.

There's just one feature about the new organization I do not like—the proposed name. It's too unwieldy. Try to say it—The Lima Better Business Bureau and Commerce Club. Too much name.

One of the big assets of your body will be the familiarity of the public with it. As it is constituted, every man and woman will be affected by its operation. For that reason it should have a simple name that all may remember. But they will not be able to use the name correctly without long practice.

Why not choose a simpler form since you must retain a part of the names of the two organizations? I believe it would be to the interest of all concerned to have a name simple enough to become familiar to all. Popularity would be added thru the psychological effect.

To Explorer Stefansson

DEAR SIR: I understand you are seeking settlers for the North Pole region, holding out various inducements to them. I am writing for a little information.

Do they have to sweep their sidewalks or be taken from their homes in the middle of the night to give bond and do they have to wade thru a foot of slush in the streets?

This letter, please, understand does not obligate me.

LIMA BEANE

To Taxicab Operators

GENTLEMEN: Reports of a price war among you have been common about my city. While my people will not object to any slashes you feel inclined to make, I do not like to be charged different prices for exactly the same ride on different occasions. Makes me feel I've been gipped some place along the line.

LIMA BEANE

To Lima Bankers

DEAR FRIENDS: The spirit of optimism that pervades your ranks as the future is contemplated, is eminently pleasing. Looking ahead is a mighty fine sort of thing.

Those who live in the past are dead ones. Those who live in the present are standing still. Those who look to the future are advancing.

To Monsieur Coue

DEAR EMILE: You probably know something about our troubles in enforcing prohibition. Do you think a little application of some such slogan as, "Every day, in every way, the country is getting drier and drier," would help?

To Postmaster Gale

MY DEAR AL: Regret is felt by a numerous contingent of my citizens over the fact that prospects of a new postoffice for my city have again gone glimmering.

Those of us who have seen federal building prospects spring up like a mushroom in the night and wither and die under the next day's sun, are not surprised over the latest Washington action, but the hope is general that some day Lima's postoffice dream will really come true.

LIMA BEANE

To Governor Donahey

MY DEAR VIC: Am addressing you thus familiarly, because I cannot think of you even as Governor other than just plain, blunt, smiling, open hearted Vic Donahey, for many years a craftsman in the same art I too pursued—printing, the art preservative of all arts.

You have been made chief executive of Ohio. You know I'm wishing you well: I trust your every expectation will be realized and that you will be spared many of the trying things that fall to the lot of those in high places. I sincerely hope that at the end of two years you'll want to be elected again and also that the people of Ohio will want you to be.

LIMA BEANE

To Manager Bingham

DEAR CLARENCE: It is rather tiresome to have so many of our city shortcomings laid to the failure of the two mill levy at the last election.

Keeping the footcrossings clear of mud in the downtown section surely would not cost so much money that it is impossible without the revenue derived from an extra levy. Why not forget the levy that failed and devise some plan of making street crossings safe for pedestrians.

LIMA BEANE

To Attorney General Daugherty

DEAR HARRY: How about the rumors that you were going to resign as soon as you were "vindicated?" A pretty neat coat of whitewash has been applied and you can get out now.

If you intend to leave the water-logged craft your Marion friend is having considerable trouble in steering, and I will not oppose such a move, don't waste time. It's too late now to do much good politically back in the old Buckeye state for the next campaign, but we'll welcome you just the same.

LIMA BEANE

To County Commissioners

FRIENDS: I trust that if the controversy in connection with the district tuberculosis hospital has not been finally adjusted, that it be done as quickly as possible.

There can scarcely be anything like efficiency under circumstances such as have existed for several weeks past. Why not put the lid on contentions and give service an opportunity?

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

ALL WOMEN

What, asks one of them, causes those unsightly brown spots on one's face? I have had them for years. I asked my doctor what I could do to remove them and he suggested rubbing lemon on them. He said all women were subject to them.

And another of them remarks in the course of her complaint about pain: "I know all women suffer some way or other."

If the doctor said all women are subject to brown spots, he greatly exaggerated, for as a matter of fact a great many women have no such spots.

If the young woman fancies that all women suffer some way or other her education is bad for as a matter of fact most healthy women suffer not at all.

Good honest instruction or education concerning sex is unfortunately taboo in most homes, and so our young women must pick up what crumbs they can find. Some of the ideas that young women acquire are positively frightful and most cruel.

To go back to the brown spots, they are not at all peculiar to women; such spots are nearly as prevalent among men. The only reason why women are more frequently subject to such spots, I think, is that women do not unbend and get exercise as regularly as men do.

Oh, there are plenty of men too lazy to unbend. But as I say, men often have brown spots.

The spots are insignia of toxemia—poison accumulated in the blood. Maybe it will sound less alarming to call it auto intoxication—but understand, please, that it has nothing to do with regularity of intestinal evacuation.

Just some of old half-burned stuff retained in the system, because metabolism is too slow, oxidation or combustion incomplete, blood withdrawn from circulation and stagnating in the great splanchnic pool. Yes, surely, the liver is part of the pool, but the liver isn't to blame for the stagnation, mind.

So far as returning the stagnating blood to circulation is concerned the quickest and pleasantest way I know to do it is by rolling a dozen or two somersaults every night and every morning. Roll 'em forward, then backward if your arteries are not too stiff. I am certainly a conservative man, but I unhesitatingly report that a month of somersaulting has knocked the spots off many an auto-intoxicated woman's fair skin.

To mention one of the least of the benefits from these health rolls.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Inherited Disease. Kindly inform me whether any of the following are inherited diseases: heart disease, cancer, eye disease, tuberculosis, Miss T. C. M.

Answer—Cancer and tuberculosis are not heritable. Structural or anatomical deficiencies or peculiarities which render the individual susceptible to certain diseases of the eye or defect of vision are inherited. For instance, color blindness, cataract, near sightedness, I know of no heart disease which is heritable.

Oleo versus Butter. I would like your advice as to whether oleomargarine or creamery is best for growing child. We have always used oleo and I cannot see but what our children are as healthy and strong as other children. But some people say oleo is not good for children.

Miss E. H. B. Answer—Of course butter is a better food for anyone. Oleo is a perfectly wholesome food for children and the children will grow and thrive quite as well on oleo, provided each child drinks not less than a pint of fresh milk every day, to obtain the vitamins in which fresh milk is rich and oleo is poor or lacking. Butter is a natural source of vitamins. The animal and vegetable fats from which oleo is made are very poor in vitamins. Good oleo at half the price of good butter is good economy if you freely use fresh milk which is also good economy.

Boiling Milk. We daily convert a quart of milk into butter milk by letting it stand warm with a tablespoonful of Bulgarian bacillus culture, saving out each day a "starter" for the next day's milk. The result is a delicious buttermilk and is reputed to have a good effect on the intestinal tract. Is that correct?—M. J. G.

Answer—It isn't buttermilk, but soured or fermented milk. The various soured or fermented milk products probably do have a good effect on the intestine. Muchmore, who introduced the idea, advocated drinking daily a pint of skim milk fermented by souring with culture of lactis (Bulgarian) bacillus, but he advised that the skim milk should first be boiled five minutes to destroy any harmful bacteria that might be present. (Copyright, 1922)

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, the sulphur preparation instantly soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

SHORT SHIFT

You ask me why I ever roam
Upon the roads unravelling,
Why don't I stay content at home
And rest awhile from traveling?
Well, there's a vagrant streak in me;
The fates somehow decree it. In
The world there's such a lot to see,
So little time to see it in!

Why do I join each sport that's gay
And jump in lightly, merrily,
Whenever there's a chance to play?
It's plain enough, you verily;
Like a fire the swiftly flames.
Its days—you can't delay them in Their flight. There are so many games,
So little time to play them in!

Why do I snatch at every chance
To join life's conflicts clamorous,
Why am I avid of romance
And of adventure glamorous?
I give great zeal to play or strife
Because the years to give it in Flee fast. There's so much joy in life,
So little time to live it in!

Women of Three Generations

The daughter, mother, and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1873 by Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for women's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 93 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold.

Let The Lima News Want Ad Booklet Make Your Want Ads Pay

LIMA NEWS Want Ads are wonderfully productive little workers, especially when they are used rightly. Making a sale depends on four things: the market, the character of your offer, the price and the way in which you word your Want Ad. And the wording of a Want Ad is very often the most important! Even when your offer is fair and the market good, your Want Ad may fail to produce if it is not worded well. To insure the right kind of response, tell your story adequately. The Lima News has printed a booklet—"Wording a Want Ad to Make It Pay"—especially for the use of its Want Advertisers. This booklet will be mailed free to any one requesting it, in the hope that it will help to make Want Ads more effective.

Read What the International Correspondence Schools Say of "Wording a Want Ad--"

MR. G. L. SUMNER, Advertising Manager of the International Correspondence Schools, in an address before various advertising clubs in the Middle West, has recommended the use of a booklet, like The News'---"Wording a Want Ad to Make It Pay."

Mr. Sumner remarks that he has been trying to drive home the idea that advertising space is only so much opportunity to interest people in what you want to buy or what you have to sell.

Interest lies in detail. The Lima News has ferreted out all possible details in the various Want Ad classifications. These lists of essential details are invaluable in the writing of a Want Ad. Send for this free Booklet and use it in writing your next Want Ad.

CAPTAIN BLOOD

—BY RAFAEL SABATINI—

And whilst the most formidable vessel of the Spanish fleet was thus being put out of action at the outset, Blood had sailed in to open fire upon the Salvador. Leaving her half-crippled, and keeping to his course, he had bewildered the crew of the Infanta by a couple of shots from the chasers on his bow-head then crashed alongside to grapple and board her, whilst Maginorpe was doing the like by the San Felipe. And in all this time not a single shot had the Spaniards contrived to fire.

Boarded now and faced by the cold steel of the buccaners, neither the San Felipe nor the Infanta offered much resistance.

Don Miguel, who, with a remnant of his crew, had meanwhile transferred himself to the Salvador, headed her down toward Palomas and the fort that guarded the passage. This fort the Admiral, in those days of waiting, had taken the precaution to garrison and man.

With no suspicion of this, Captain Blood gave chase, accompanied by the Infanta, which was manned now by a prize crew under the command of Yerville. The stern chasers of the Salvador desultorily returned the punishing fire of the pursuers; but such was the damage she, herself, sustained, that presently, coming under the guns of the fort, she began to sink, and finally settled down in the shallows with part of her hull above water. Thence, some in boats and some by swimming, the Admiral got his crew ashore on Palomas as best he could.

And then, just as Captain Blood accounted the victory won, the fort suddenly revealed its formidable and utterly unexpected strength. With a roar the cannons roared proclaimed themselves, and the Arabella staggered under a blow that smashed her bulwarks at the waist.

Meanwhile it had fared even worse with the frailer Infanta. Altho hit by one shot only, this had smashed her larboard timbers on the waterline.

Out of range, at last, they lay, joined by the Elizabeth and the San Felipe, to consider their position.

CHAPTER XVII

The Dupes
It was a crestfallen Captain Blood who presided over that hastily summoned council held on the poop-deck of the Arabella in the brilliant morning sunshine.

He was compelled to admit that nothing remained but to return to Maracaybo, there to refit the ships before attempting to force the passage.

And so, back to Maracaybo came those defeated victors of that short, terrible fight.

Captain Blood went to give his surgeon's skill to the wounded, among whom he remained engaged until late afternoon. Then he returned to the house of the Governor, to indite a very scholarly letter in purest Castilian to Don Miguel.

"I have shown your excellency this morning of what I am capable," he wrote. "Altho outnumbered by more than two to one in men, in ships, and in guns, I have sunk or captured the vessels of the great fleet with which you were to come to Maracaybo to destroy us. I should not trouble your excellency with this letter but that I am a humane man, abhorring bloodshed. Therefore before proceeding to deal with your fort, as I have dealt already with your fleet, I make you, purely out of humanitarian considerations, this last offer of terms. I will spare this city of Maracaybo and forthwith evacuate it, leaving behind me the forty prisoners I have taken, in consideration of your paying me the sum of fifty thousand pieces of eight."

PATTERN FOR TODAY

A PRACTICAL APRON STYLE

4214. Percale in a neat pattern of blue and white, with bands of black sateen was chosen for this model. It is easy to develop, easy to adjust and easy to launder—three good points. Crepe or gingham would also be good for this design.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: Small, medium, large and extra large. A medium size requires 2-3-4 yards of 27 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver.

TOILER SUPREME IN YUCATAN

Laborer in Full Power in This Mexican State

DEMANDS BACKED BY LAW

Has Right to Part of Profits Besides Wages

(BY FREDK G. NEUMEIER)
MEXICO CITY.—(United Press)

Yucatan is a closed shop. It is a land where the laborer is in full power. No other country or state in the world, it is said, has labor laws such as are in this state of Mexico.

The laws provide that all workers have the right to unionize as a means of defense for private and common interests to form "leagues of resistance" or other similar organizations.

Workers, under the law, have a right to demand part of the profits besides their wages. When a worker cannot work due to the fault of the employer, he must be paid his wages for the time lost.

All employers must hand to the state treasury five percent of their net profits which is devoted to relieving distress in parts of the state where work is scarce.

When laborers are brought from other localities, they may demand to be returned to their homes and the employers must pay the expenses.

Where the work is situated outside of villages or towns, the employer must provide commodious houses for the workers and when the workers leave their jobs for whatever motive, they have a right to keep on living in the houses one more year without paying rent.

Schools and theatres must be established for the workers.

When a person is discharged without cause or for belonging to a league of resistance, or for having taken part in a strike, his employer must at the election of the worker either comply with the contract, or give him three months' wages. When a woman is fired, including a domestic, she must be given three months even if she is ousted with cause.

A SHORT WORK DAY

The constitution of Mexico provides that eight hours shall constitute a working day. In Yucatan, however, the socialists have gotten around this provision with a law that provides, "the duration of the maximum day shall be eight hours, but ordinarily it must not be more than six and the unionized have the right to demand through their leagues of resistance or other organizations even less hours of work, but with the same rate of wages." The law provides that only a half day's work shall be done on Saturday, but that payment shall be made for a full day's work. All overtime must be paid at a double rate.

Liberal child labor laws are provided and mothers are given special attention.

Article 77 of the labor laws provides that when the feeding of a baby is incompatible with the work of a mother, she has the right to leave the work without incurring any responsibilities and must be indemnified with three months' wages.

Article 79 of the same law provides that expectant mothers must take rest two months before and two months after the child birth and that the mother shall receive full salary and her position kept open for her. Mothers are entitled under the law to two hours daily for the feeding of children.

Whenever an employer strikes, violence or menace to stop a strike, he is imprisoned for a period of fifteen days, provided that he does not commit at the same time offenses which are punishable under the penal code.

The law provides that when workers go on a strike their places cannot be taken, nor can business begin until the strike is ended.

A lockout is admissible only under the law when excess production makes it necessary to suspend the work, provided that the court of conciliation or arbitration approves. If a lockout is declared under any other condition the employees must be paid three months' wages.

And the courts of arbitration in this "Land of Topsy Turvy" are composed of three members, one representing the employer, one the employees and the third the Socialist government.

Workmen's compensation laws are especially favorable to the workers.

What the Business Man May Expect In 1923

There is scarcely an individual doing business in the United States, whether upon a large or small scale, who will not receive information that will be of unusual value to him if he reads the leading news-feature in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week. It comprises surveys and predictions of business for the coming twelve months made by the foremost financiers and economists in the country—the heads of great banking institutions; such men as John Moody, B. C. Forbes, and Roger W. Babson, and the financial editors of the most important American newspapers. The article points out the clouds on the business sky which no cautious business man can afford to ignore; shows the condition of the farmer; the trend of wages; what makes for increased prosperity. The article is illustrated by charts and graphs.

Other striking news-features in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, January 13th, are:

Go to the Theater and Laugh at "Fun From the Press"

When the dull cares of business are closed behind office doors, you need some laughter. When the dishes are done and the grind of household duties is over, you ought to laugh. It will make to-morrow brighter, happier. So pack up your troubles and take a little journey to The Land of Make Believe. In the mellow glow of subdued lights let the craftsmen of the cinema world guide your sagging spirits back to normalcy. Rest—amid the enchantment of princes and potentates and palaces as they pass in review for you. Then let the cleverest jesters of newspaperdom tickle your funny bone. They will make merry from the day's clearest news. They will relate the funniest anecdotes, the most humorous yarns, and the wittiest epigrams. And all presented in the one rollicking reel, "Fun From the Press." Watch for it in your favorite motion picture theater—a new one every week. "Fun From the Press," Produced by The Literary Digest. BRITAIN MAY LOSE SEA SUPREMACY

Failure to Ratify Washington Treaty Alarms England

MANY SHIPS ARE SCRAPPED

Reserve Against Possible Repudiation of Pact Destroyed

(BY LYLE C. WILSON)

LONDON — (United Press) —

For the first time in centuries England is minus the trump cards in the game of retaining supremacy of the sea.

Two new capital ships, planned as the most powerful afloat and scheduled to be begun this month may remain mere paper skeletons in the Admiralty office.

Unless the signatory nations make haste to consummate the Washington disarmament treaty, England will find herself tied with Japan as a bad second in sea power, naval experts point out.

Despite national poverty it was understood, weeks ago that plans of the two new ships would be carried to completion. This followed the call for bids on the part of the Admiralty for the construction of the peerless monsters.

It is now rumored that the admiralty's opening of bids was in direct disagreement with the instructions of the Lloyd-George government. The government had ordered that the program be deferred for an indefinite period. On its own initiative the Admiralty called for bids. It is up to the new government now to countermand the order or to sanction laying the keels.

The Lloyd-George government proceeded with the scrapping of all the ships specified in the Washington agreement. By so doing, it is pointed out, the existing reserve of the British navy against a possible repudiation of the naval agreement by other signatory powers has been destroyed.

This "act of good faith" has pushed England perilously near the danger point, the Morning Post declares. Should a repudiation of the Washington agreement occur at this time, the resultant strength of the three great naval powers would be, United States 41 capital ships; Japan 23 capital ships; England 23 capital ships.

The United States has not, according to the Post, taken steps to scrap designated vessels pending the final endorsement of the naval agreement by the government concerned. Lord Lee of Farnham is quoted as saying that the only reason the Admiralty agreed to the scrapping of the thirteen capital ships by the late government was that the other powers should fulfill their obligations and that two new ships allowed under the agreement should be made immediately available.

Either of these promises to the Admiralty's conclusion to sanction the scrapping program may prove unsound. But, even though the treaty is poorly carried out, England will be far behind unless some means of carrying out the construction of the two new ships is found.

AFTER RATIFICATION

After ratification all around, the United States would possess 20 capital ships but, and building, five of these would be post-Jutland. Japan would have 10 capital ships, two of them post-Jutland. England would have an imposing total of 22 capital ships. But, the Post points out, only one of these, the Hood, would embody the improvements derived from the experience of the war. The foregoing status puts England in a distinctly inferior position to the United States in ultra-modern ships.

If the treaty is ratified all around, and if the money for the construction of the two new ships is forthcoming, England and the United States will be on a parity with 30 capital ships each. Under the agreement England must scrap four capital vessels upon commissioning the pair of new ones. Japan's quota will be ten ships. If there is a hitch anywhere the balance is destroyed and England for the first time will find herself second in naval power.

Meantime alarming rumors come from France that the naval agreement may not be okayed.

LIMA YOUTHS INDICTED IN KENTON ROBBERIES

Howard Mitchell, 19, of 931 S. Main-st., who surrendered to Lima police after a sensational escape from Hardin-co. Jail, was indicted by the grand jury at Kenton Thursday, along with Charles Turpin, 19, of 343 S. Main-st. and Omar Gaines, of 343 S. Union-st.

Mitchell is accused of burglary in connection with the Kraus-Rice jewelry store robbery at Kenton and the other two were indicted for stealing hides, valued at $67. The trio are said to have sold their plunder in Lima.

WINS BY MINDING OWN BUSINESS

Secret of Great Merchant's Success is Revealed

MIAMI, Fla.—A penniless business failure who arose to the head of a system of 371 chain stores doing more than $50,000,000 business a year in 29 states, is America's most telling millionaire.

He is James C. Penney, 47, of White Plains, N. Y., whose name would still be unknown to the general public if his broker hadn't announced the issuance of a $1,500,000 life insurance policy making his total $3,000,000. Only three other persons in this country carry a greater insurance. They are Adolph Zukor who heads the list with $5,000,000, Rodman Wanamaker and Pierre du Pont.

How has this wealthy man succeeded in keeping out of the public eye?

By minding his own business. It is the secret of his success. He learned it as a youngster. When he was nine he first felt the urge of making money. But there wasn't much doing in Hamilton, Mo., where he was born, and there wasn't much time after school. Young Penney found a way, however.

He started raising hogs. He let no one help him. During his free hours he went out and collected stumps for his pigs. The business grew so large that he finally had to give it up.

His next venture was planting watermelons.

After he finished school he got his first job in the largest general store in town. His pay was $2.27 a month. The next year he was raised to $16.66 but his health failed him and he had to go to Denver.

There he went into the butcher business—and failed.

Penniless he got a job in a dry-goods store. When he saved $500 he bought a part interest in a branch store in Kennermer, Wyo. It was the beginning of the J. C. Penney chain store system.

"My wife and I," says the millionaire, "honeymooned cheerfully among the packing cases. I was the boss; she was the clerk."

"Success in business is obtained only thru sacrifice. In making sacrifices for future success, a wife must be the real partner of her husband."

Mrs. Penney was— And so they succeeded.

KLAN BLAMED FOR CITIZEN WAR

Line Drawn Between Factions in Morehouse Parish

WITNESSES TELL OF CLASH

People Divided, for and Against the Ku Klux

BASTROP, La. — (Associated Press).—State authorities holding an open investigation into the kidnapping and slaying of Watt Daniel and Thomas Richards in Morehouse parish had before them today the testimony of nearly two score witnesses dealing with disputes between the people of the two principal towns, Bastrop and Mer Rouge, dating back for years and starting, according to several, with the drawing of a line between factions favoring and opposing the Ku Klux Klan.

Robert L. Dade, mayor of Mer Rouge, told the investigators that "before the Klan came, everybody in Mer Rouge were like brothers but now there is a strained feeling; under the reign of the Klan there has arisen a condition in this parish that is intolerable."

The condition which existed in Mer Rouge, Bastrop and the entire parish of Morehouse prior to the alleged reform measures enforced by Dr. B. M. McKinnis while mayor of Mer Rouge were considered as being peaceful by the present Mer Rouge mayor, Mr. Dade.

OFFICIALS DRAWN IN
On the heels of these reform measures came the organization of the Klan. Kalds, according to testimony, were made on Mer Rouge by masked men wearing Ku Klux Klan regalia, citizens were flogged, some ordered deported from the state and others given lectures. The Klan, witnesses, testified, superseded the constituted authorities of the parish. The sheriff, the clerk, the district attorney and other parish officials, it has been testified, became aligned with the hooded order.

As related by witnesses conditions went from bad to worse. Rumors became current that the citizens of Mer Rouge planned a reprisal raid on Bastrop. Citizens of Bastrop organized and armed themselves. Citizens of Mer Rouge did likewise.

ATTEMPT TO KILL
Then came an alleged attempt to kill Dr. McKinnis. Many citizens of Mer Rouge, according to its present mayor, do not believe any attempt was made to assassinate the physician while citizens of Bastrop firmly believe such an attempt was carried out.

Several men were accused of the plot, one being Richards. On August 17 he was kidnapped in daylight on the main street of Bastrop and carried to the woods by a party of black hooded men and questioned. Witnesses testified that Sheriff Carpenter of this parish was standing about 100 feet away when the kidnapping occurred.

One week later, Richards, Watt Daniel, W. C. Andrews and Watt's father, J. L. Daniel, were seized by hooded men on a crowded highway, taken into the woods and flogged. "Tot" Davenport, also seized, was not molested. Davenport, Andrews and J. L. Daniel were released, but Watt Daniel and Richards were carried off and tortured to death.

The motive for the double murder has not been brought out.

ALLEGED MIDDLE POINT HARDWARE STORE ROBBERS TO BE ARRAIGNED FRIDAY

Arraignment of Bernard Baker and Fred Ratliff, Ft. Wayne youths, and Charles Edward Sheekler, of near Middlepoint, before Common Pleas Judge Blachly at Van Wert on burglary and larceny charges, was expected Friday.

Confession alleged to have been made by Baker and Ratliff implicated Sheekler in the robbery of the Baxter hardware store at Middlepoint November 23. Merchandise worth $100 was stolen.

Indictments were returned by the Van Wert-co grand jury against the trio. Deputy Sheriff Fred Boley went out to arrest Sheekler Thursday. Baker and Ratliff have been in custody since December 1.

Admissions made by the Ft. Wayne men accuse Sheekler of going into the store while they watched outside. A second robbery at the Baxter store January 2, when $325 worth of goods was stolen, has been investigated.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wetmore's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

MRS. KNOX HAS 2 PERSONALITIES?

Another Jekyll and Hyde, State Seeks to Show

ACCUSED OF KILLING MATE

Spent Thousands in Uplift and Charity Work

HEMPHILL Tex. — (Special) — Is Mrs. Lillian Knox, widow of Hiram Knox, millionaire lumberman, a feminine counterpart of the famous Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde of fiction?

Did one of two personalities draw her up toward humanitarian work, spending of thousands in the betterment of her community, generous gifts to charity, which gained her the title of "Lady Bountiful"?

While the other—the evil—personality drew her downward to conspiring against her husband's life and finally to firing the shot from an automatic pistol that caused his death as he lay sleeping?

That question is on every lip in this little Texas lumbering town while Mrs. Knox, to the astonishment of those she has benefited by her lavish gifts is behind the bars of the Hemphill jail charged with the murder of her husband, shot to death Nov. 26.

HER STRANGE CAREER: Here is the story of Mrs. Knox's remarkable career as it will be told in court if Mrs. Knox is brought to trial on a murder charge:

Mrs. Knox, known before her marriage as Lillian Marshall, was the eldest of five. Shortly after her birth, her mother died. Her father moved to Houston while she was still a young girl.

There the girl met Knox, head of a vast lumbering concern and heir of a fortune estimated at between $7,000,000 and $10,000,000. They loved and were wed. That was 10 years ago.

The young wife immediately after her marriage was initiated into the secrets of her husband's widespread business interests. She began to dominate them thru him and was known thruout the southwest as the "Texas lumber queen."

But Mrs. Knox soon tired dominating her husband's affairs, vast tho they were. She became interested in charity and civic betterment.

She set out to make beautiful and better the rough region which in those days surrounded the site of the Knox mills here. She started building a fairyland in a lumber camp.

ACCUSED HUSBAND SLAYER

Her first work was to plan the little town that was to grow around the mills her husband owned.

Then she turned her efforts toward improving the railroad connecting Hemphill with Bronson, 10 miles away. As the result of her endeavors, the road was changed from a narrow-gauge to a standard-gauge line.

She brought at her own expense theatrical troupes from distant places to offer their artistry free of charge to lumber camp employees and their families.

She built a mansion in which the entertainments she gave made her famous thruout the southwest. She purchased old masters and further embellished her art collection by importations from Europe.

Each Christmas saw the expenditure of thousands that the people of the community might not want for gifts.

The labor policy of the Knox mills was directed largely by Mrs. Knox. High wages were paid and a costly housing program, providing homes for employees on easy installment, was started.

KNOX FOUND SLAIN Then came the sudden death of Hiram Knox. The multimillionaire was found in his bed early in the morning by Mrs. Knox and her sister, who said they were awakened by a pistol shot. A bullet had penetrated the lumberman's head.

Testimony was introduced at the inquest to show that Knox several times had threatened to commit suicide. Nevertheless the coroner pronounced his death a murder. Then came a lull, ending with the sensation that shook Texas and the southwest—the arrest of Mrs. Knox.

The state according to the prosecutor, will introduce letters said to have been written to Mrs. Knox by a Texan with whom it will attempt to prove Mrs. Knox was friendly.

But Mrs. Knox laughs at the accusations. "Malice and envy are behind this prosecution," she says. "I am innocent. This is a conspiracy against me—and some of those I have befriended are involved. I will prove the charge ridiculous."

KELLOGG'S BRAN

gives permanent relief

because it is ALL BRAN!

With the most dangerous diseases close on the trail of sufferers from constipation, there's no time to waste on foods with a low bran content! The one answer to constipation is BRAN that is ALL BRAN! That's why you should eat Kellogg's—and eat it regularly; at least two tablespoonfuls daily; as much with each meal in chronic cases! KELLOGG'S BRAN IS SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED TO RELIEVE SUFFERING HUMANITY AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Don't delay a minute! Get started on Kellogg's Bran to-day and your health will steadily improve and bowel conditions return to normal, no matter how long you have suffered with constipation, mild or chronic.

Remember that Kellogg's Bran is not an artificial laxative, but nature's own bulk food that acts as sweeper, cleanser and purifier. Its work for health is wonderful! Besides, bran contains the most valuable mineral salts and other life-sustaining elements—it is a blood maker and bone and tissue-builder!

Kellogg's Bran, being cooked and krumbled, is delicious eaten as a cereal, or sprinkled on hot or cold cereals. Another happy way to serve Kellogg's Bran is to cook it with your favorite hot cereal. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person, cooking the cereal as usual.

You can make the most delightful muffins, raisin bread, pancakes, macaroons, etc., with Kellogg's Bran—and it's fine in gravies, soups and purees.

The big thing is to get started on Kellogg's Bran quickly—for the sake of the health of your entire family—AND SERVE IT REGULARLY! First-class hotels and clubs serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant!

REPORT CONTAINS THRILLING TALE

Canadian Mounted Officer Solves
Difficult Eskimo Murder

ACTS AS CORONER AND JUDGE

Slayers Will Probably be Executed Next Summer

OTTAWA — (Special) — Ifeeds of the Dominion government soon will pore over the world's most thrilling detective story, veiled under the legal verbiage of formal report from the famed Canadian mounted police.

A mysterious murder, a heroic avenger, a trek of hundreds of miles thru icy wastes, all the romance of the frozen northland, will be elements of the story.

Its setting will be Baffin Land—226,000 frozen square miles, four times the size of England, north of Hudson Bay, north of the Canadian mainland, north of almost everything save the north pole.

Its hero will be Staff Sergeant Joy of the Canadian Mounted.

ON MURDER TRAIL.

And the story: News reached Joy that Robert James, white trader, had been slain by Eskimos somewhere in Baffin Land. The news didn't filter thru until nearly a year after the crime. Joy started out behind his dog team and traveled hundreds of miles to the scene of the crime. There he located the body.

Sergeant Joy immediately became coroner Joy. He summoned a jury of Eskimos, called witnesses, held an autopsy.

The jury found the trader had met death at the hands of three Eskimos with unpronounceable names, then supposed to be 500 miles farther north.

And the witnesses necessary for a prosecution were scattered thru a wild and almost untraveled country 200 miles long by 200 miles wide. To assemble them would be a labor of years.

JOY AS MAGISTRATE.

So Joy simply sent messages to them notifying them to appear and be arrested.

And so great was the fear of the long arm of the mounted police that both accused and witnesses began to filter in voluntarily to be placed under arrest. They were all on hand within two months.

Then Sergeant Joy and Coroner Joy became Magistrate Joy. He placed the accused on trial. A white trader and an Eskimo woman were summoned for the defense. The trial lasted 10 days. The accused made statements that amounted to confessions. Sometime this summer a complete court with counsel for defense and prosecution will be sent up north to try the three accused slayers again.

Meanwhile the accused remain under open arrest. They'll probably be executed. "Sergeant Joy carried out these operations alone and unaided," says the official report. "The documents sent out by him were complete in every detail. The proceedings before his makeshift court were as regular as any ever carried out in the Dominion."

OLD ORGANS TO BE REPLACED

Part of Eye of Pig to be Transplanted Soon

SURGICAL SCIENCE ADVANCES

Operations Already Performed Have Foretold Success

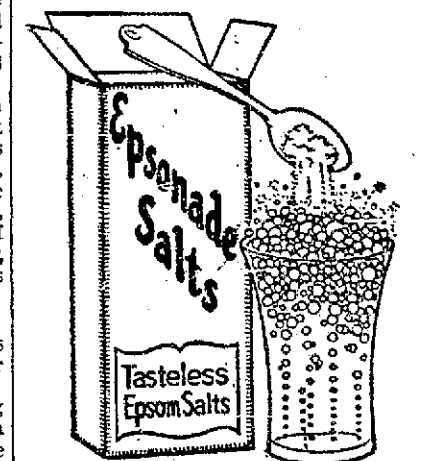

By BOB DORMAN
PATERNON, N. J. — (Special)—Monkey glands, pigs' eyes and other animal parts will soon be replacing worn-out organs of the human body, as a common practice, according to Dr. Edward B. Morgan, well-known physician here.
In March he will attempt to restore a blind boy's sight by replacing his useless eye with one from a pig. Within ten years he expects such substitutions to become popular.
"The medical fraternity," says Dr. Morgan, "has just begun to open up the possibilities of the replacement of worn-out human organs by corresponding parts from animals."
"I am convinced that there are thousands of people walking in darkness who could be made to see by replacing their sightless eyes with pigs' eyes, which, among the animals, most closely resemble the human eye. If the optic nerve has not been damaged, I can see no reason why such an operation should not be a success."
Glands and kidneys, whose close counterparts can be readily found in animals, should also be capable of substitution. In fact the substitution of monkey glands has already yielded beneficial results.
"The operation which I am going to perform on Alfred Lenanowicz should restore his sight. One of his eyes has been totally destroyed, but the other has merely become opaque in the cornea. Back of the cornea the eye is perfectly normal."
"The cornea will be removed, cutting into the white of the eye a little, so as to leave room for sewing on the new cornea. Then the corresponding organ will be taken from a chloroformed pig, and attached to the boy's eye by six stitches. If the transplanted part adheres—and I see no reason why it shouldn't—the boy will be able to see as well as ever."
"I performed a similar operation some years ago on a woman, but with only partial success. She was able to see all right for two years, but at the end of that time the transplanted cornea dropped off, caused by a diseased condition of the interior eye. In the present case, I look for an absolute cure, as the boy's eye is perfectly healthy."

OPERATES IN DINING ROOM
While talking, Dr. Morgan was busily engaged in removing a tumor from a patient's eyelid.
The interview was in the dining room. The patient was resting in a dining room chair. The usual white fittings of an operating room were absent. Dr. Morgan was dressed in his business suit.
"He does not believe in the modern trappings with which operations are now surrounded," is his characterization of them. For more than 40 years he has been successful without them.

IT JUST CAN'T BE DONE
Try it! Watch and keep tab on your sub-conscious self, in passing the Lyric theater and see if you do not have the impulse to want to go in. Try it out once and determine if it is not so. Do you know the reason? The Lyric is the most attractive theater in Lima. It fairly exudes a welcome. It surrounds itself with an atmosphere of general attractiveness which penetrates clear out to the entrance, which, like the open countenance of a good-natured man, bespeaks truthfully of what it really is inside. Those who have seen the Lyric since its rejuvenation know. Those who have not been there since, have a genuine surprise in store for them. A truly wonderful place of relaxation and genuine enjoyment. Go Sunday and see James Oliver Curwood's great story of the Northern Wilds—"The Man From Hell's River."

SEVEN CITIES ARE REPRESENTED

(BY MERRICK M. HILL)

League baseball for Lima and five or seven other nearby cities was assured Thursday night, when managers of the various teams met in Wapakoneta and unanimously approved the plan.

The meeting which was called by Happy Vosler, manager of the Wapakoneta Reds, was attended by representatives of all sections of the district to be covered by the league, and several managers who were unable to be present, sent proxies stating that any action taken at the meeting would be fully approved by them.

Cities, which are sure of entering the league and which will attend a second organization meeting in Lima soon are, Lima, Wapakoneta, St. Marys, Sidney, Delphos, Van Wert, and Ottawa. In event that the league is composed of 8 teams, either Celina or Troy will come in.

At Thursday night's meeting, little in the way of organization was attempted, the purpose being to find out the opinion regarding the idea and to lay out general policies.

Bernie Halloran, manager of the Independents, was chosen temporary president officer, and at his invitation, it was decided to hold the second meeting in Lima on January 21 at the Hotel Norval.

One of the most important points discussed was the personnel of the teams. It was decided to keep the teams at their present proportion of 15 home-town residents of a city and three out-of-town players. The schedule which will commence early in April will consist of approximately 24 Sunday games and three holiday battles. The season will end directly after Labor Day.

It was also decided to invite one of the most noted baseball fans in Northwestern Ohio to accept the presidency of the organization and all clubs agreed that the president would be final in all disputes taken to him for settlement. The question of obtaining a national agreement was discussed, and was tabled until a later meeting.

The men present at the meeting are highly enthusiastic over the idea, and several offers of remodeling ball parks, which will increase the capacity of the grandstands.

Celina has recently completed one of the most modern parks in the state. St. Marys is planning extensive alterations and will enlarge the grandstands. Sidney reported that their park was in good condition.

The admission charged decided upon for the coming year was $50. This price will be standard, unless plans are changed at a later meeting. The new diamond organization will not be named until the next meeting. At this conclusion, permanent officers will be chosen, a constitution adopted and a tentative set of by-laws drawn up. Schedules will also be made at this meeting.

Those who attended the meeting were Bernie Halloran, Lima, Happy Vosler, Wapakoneta, Jerry Tobin, St. Marys, and L. T. Berger, Sidney, Ottawa, Delphos and Van Wert, were represented by proxies.

Such being the case it is only natural that as a side issue to the baseball interests, Nallin should boast one of the finest kennels of pedigreed bird dogs in the country.

During the summer months Nallin has his kennels at Frederick, Md., while in the winter he ships a number of his best dogs south for the field trials.

During the past year Nallin has sold a score of classy bird dogs for fancy prices. It is said that his revenue from his kennels is in keeping with his salary as a major league umpire.

Many of Nallin's best dogs have been prize winners all over the country. With Nallin there are just two things, baseball and dogs. He is always discussing one or the other.

Hank Gowdy, Veteran Catcher ST. JOHNS FIVE BREAK IS SLATED FOR MINORS DEFEATED LIKELY

HANK GOWDY

(BY BILLY EVANS) There is an end to the career of every player in baseball. No matter how great a performer a player may be, there comes a time when he finds the pace is too fast. For example, consider Hans Wagner, Larry Lajoie and a host of others.

Rumor has it that Hank Gowdy, one of the most spectacular figures in major league baseball, is about to slide to the minors. It is said the Boston club intends to dispose of Gowdy.

Hank Gowdy burst into the sporting spotlight in 1914 with a vengeance and held it ever since. Gowdy is one of the most popular players that ever graced the National League. If it is true that Gowdy is to pass out of the National League will lose a great character.

Hank Gowdy was a raw recruit when he joined the Giants in 1910. He didn't make much of an impression on McGraw and when the opportunity came to arrange a trade with Boston for Charley Horzog, Gowdy was shoved along in company with Art Bridwell and a bunch of cash.

Gowdy went to Buffalo. He was released to Buffalo in 1913. He had promise but lacked experience and polish.

Gowdy came last at Buffalo. After a year he was brought back to Boston, and won undying fame in one history, probably forgotten by a season—1914. His success that year was due to his hitting. He was a power hitter, and his batting average of .314, his success that year

After leading at the end of the first half 14 to 6, St. Marys high proved too strong for the St. Johns quintet in the last half and piled up 6 more points, while the local outfit could send only one counter thru the net.

The final score, 20 to 6, does not indicate a fast, furious game, but during the entire contest, there was never a score made that was not the result of hard fighting by both offense and defense.

Lineup and summary: St. Johns: Farley, Swartz, Schimpf, Adams, Vansky, Suckland, Kayser, Boyce, Henry, Larkin. Substitutes—Munch for Vansky, Munch for Farley, Nagel for Boyce, McMillan for Larkin. Field goals: Schimpf 2, Swartz 2, Adams 4, Suckland 4. Free throws—2.

Chicago beat Philadelphia by the score of 26 to 23. The winners made 25 hits and the losers 26. In addition to being hit hard, all the pitchers were wild, issuing 21 bases on balls.

In the second inning Chicago scored 10 runs, in the fourth inning 14 crossed the plate. Philadelphia made eight runs in the eighth session and six in the ninth.

In the fourth inning Outfielder Callahan equaled a world's record by facing a pitcher three times in one inning. He made two hits and struck out on his other appearance.

The total runs of the two teams 49, is the biggest mark ever registered in the majors, the previous record being 43.

What was the most remarkable game of 1922 from purely the standpoint of slugging? In a season featured by batting, the game between Chicago and Philadelphia, staged at Chicago on August 25, stands out as the slugfest of the year.

Chicago beat Philadelphia by the score of 26 to 23. The winners made 25 hits and the losers 26. In addition to being hit hard, all the pitchers were wild, issuing 21 bases on balls.

BIG GAME FILM PRESENTS DRAMA OF NATURE

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

THE film record of H. A. Snow's big game exploits in Africa is the most noteworthy tribute yet paid to the power of the motion picture camera.

It presents a trackless, unknown world to our civilization. It presents species of wild animal life never before photographed.

The film is labeled by the rather didactic title of "Hunting Big Game in Africa with Gun and Camera," but it has the same dramatic phases that made "Nanook of the North" something more than a scenic feature.

The picture contains thrill after thrill. The excitement lies in the movements of animals and birds as well as in the bravery of the men who faced charging elephants and rhinoceros.

In one scene thousands upon thousands of jackass penguins are shown battling a rolling tide as they clamber down from their rocks into the water.

The African elephant, king of killers, is shown at close range, his great ears flopping in anxiety as he senses the presence of humans. Then he sees the intruders and charges straight upon them, ears out like sails to catch the wind, trunk arched, a demon, an unleashed fury mountainous in bulk and bearing straight upon the intrepid cameraman. A shot and he falls.

The picture tells more than can be set down here in type. An account of the film ought to contain some tribute to H. A. Snow who headed the expedition and to Sidney Snow, his son, who stood behind his camera and turned the crank as wild beasts rushed upon him. The film has been edited by some unnamed genius blessed with a sense of humor, who has knit the film into an absorbing narrative. Those unnamed natives who ventured forth without weapons to guide their white brothers are also among the bravest of the brave.

One such film as this can do more to uphold the prestige of the screen than a hundred tawdry pictures can tear down.

not so clever. The pair also dance, etc.

Harvey, Heney and Grayce have a musical opportunity they term "On the Course" in which a bit of blackface comicality is combined with musical selections of enjoyable proportions.

Neil and Witt have one of the best acts on the program. Two boys with voices, and one having a penchant for piano-playing, they entertain in every sense of the word. Character songs, popular numbers and original ones make up their repertoire.

Downey and Claridge have several surprises in store for you. Before a background of beautiful colors they "do their stuff." Being surprises, I can't very well tell you about it, can I?

THEATRE DIRECTORY

AT THE QUILNA:

"When Knighthood Was in Flower," the Cosmopolitan special production appearing all this week at the Quilna theatre, is twelve reels in length. It stars Miss Marion Davies, and has a supporting cast of unusual excellence. Last times on Saturday.

AT THE MAJESTIC:

Norma Talmadge has the stellar role in "The Wonderful Thing" appearing again today at the Majestic theatre. Also added attractions.

CLOSEUPS

"It has happened," Marie Prevost "mph," daily DENIES" that she is engaged to Kenneth Harlan. Come along, Miss Negri, and declare that you and Charlie Chaplin are "only friends"—malicious rumors to the contrary.

"The Little Church Around the Corner" has been completed. That is, the Warner Brothers film by that name is finished. It was made from the stage play by Charles Blaney and the novel by Marion Russell.

It is said there are nearly a score of Baby Peggy Kiddie clubs throughout the United States.

Alice Lake and Edna Murphy have the feminine leads in "Nobody's Bride," starring Herbert Rawlinson.

Won't there be a laugh if any censor cuts "Frivolity, or When a Woman's Forty." It was written by Royal A. Baker, Detroit film censor.

Kipling's Poem Enacted for You at Lyric

ONE could hardly be a perfect lady and say that out of the poem by Rudyard Kipling. Fox has made a splendid picture in "A Fool There Was," could one? So, it remains to remark that the Fox adaptation of the famous vampire poem is quite laudable. (Remember the one they made ages ago, with Theda Bara?)

Gilda Fontaine (in the story) is one of these magnetic feminine types who can lure most any husband and father from most any mother and child. She is a silent, shrewd, evil personage, with insolent, long-lashed eyes. She is always elaborately coiffed and gowned, and to catch 'em and cast 'em aside is her life's work. You are quite sure she will never rest until she "gets" the hapless Hamilton, who plays in the picture, and makes fools of us all and actually slaps her face in the last reel or so.

An unpleasant story, to be sure, but if you witness "A Fool There

Was" you will admit that you have rarely seen better acting. Irene Rich as the wife who forgets and forgives in adorable. Lewis Stone as the poor unfortunate husband who becomes so deeply enmeshed in the web of the beautiful vampire, is simply great, and the work of every other member of the cast is memorable. You'll love little Muriel Dana.

Estelle Taylor, cast as the vampire, enacts her role as you imagine a real vampire should do. She has beauty and talent, and while it may not be a compliment, as a vampire she is absolutely a wonder!

Admitting also the excellence of photography, direction, mounting, and so on, she passes on with the remark that "A Fool There Was" is one of the best pieces, historically, that Mr. Fox has issued for some time.

It's playing at the Lyric again today and on Saturday.

"The Cup of Life" Colorful Picture-Play

FOR his third super-production, Mr. Ince has drawn on the cosmopolitanism of Singapore and the charm of the East Indies for a background of striking allure, against which he has portrayed a delightful story of father-ly love and Chinese vengeance and things. "The Cup of Life" is what we are talking about. Take a look at this cast, please. There's Madge Bellamy, one of the daintiest and most able actresses who ever graced the screen; Hobart Bosworth, the famous strong man of screendom, who holds a reputation; Niles Welsh, a good-looking, clean-cut man, who appeared in many noteworthy productions; and Tully Marshall, who needs no introduction. With such a cast and Mr. Ince at the megaphone, could "The Cup of Life" be anything but a good picture? I ask you.

These Chinese affairs are all the more vivid as the telling is withheld from your eager ears, but it will not hurt you to know that most of the action centers about Billy

Brand, a daring, notorious pearl smuggler, who tries to save his son (who doesn't know Brand is his father) from the diabolical vengeance of Chang Chang, a power in Chinese mercantile circles. For why does he want vengeance? Because he unwittingly believes Brand to be responsible for the proposed mistreatment of his adopted white daughter. That's as much as you shall know, but we might add that there's a tight scene in the drama that makes you sit up and take notice.

Lovely little Miss Bellamy is doubly attractive in Chinese raiment. Sets and backgrounds are artistically reproduced. Details that make or break a picture are perfect in execution.

Therefore, "The Cup of Life" qualifies as a stirring, well-enacted and well produced drama, and is to be recommended as a splendid program offering.

At the Sigma today and Saturday.

Real Wedding at The New Orpheum on Thursday

IN addition to the brand new program offered by the Bert Smith Co. at the New Orpheum on Thursday, a real wedding ceremony took place before the evening performance, when two members of the company, Miss Jeanette Marcelle and "Buddy" Clark, were united in marriage by a local justice. The ceremony was performed in full view of the audience, on the stage and was a culmination of a romance that dates back several years. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will continue to act in the Ragtime Wonders Company, as always.

"Stop Thief," the current offering, is a miniature version of the famous play of the same name and gives to the principals, Mr. Mack, Miss Hale, Miss Shaffer and all the rest, pleasing roles to portray. Betwixt and between, of course, you are regaled with bits of song, dance, chorus numbers and two selections, all new and entertaining.

The Bert Smith Company will remain here for another full week, and are making preparations to present unusually strong bills during their stay here next week, with a new bill all ready for Sunday.

Potpouri of Music, Fun and Dance at Faurot Opera House

THE week-end program of Keith vaudeville, as presented for the first time on Thursday afternoon, is a potpourri of singing, talking, dancing, instrumental music, piano-playing and such. As a variety bill it is all to the good.

Starting at the end and working forward, for a change, Leona Hall and four assistants put on a peppy little minstrel revue with jazz singing and dancing forming the bulk of the offering. A delightful vocal selection by one lady member of the company, and a dance solo by Miss Hall herself won the immediate approbation of the audience.

An amiable nut billed as "Monocle Manley," assisted by Miss Ann Marston, utilizes a blank expression, an English dialect and an awkward walk to get his audience in a receptive frame of mind. Some of his patter and songs are clever; others

SHORT SHAVINGS

Dr. F. G. Maurer, secretary-treasurer of the Delphos Kiwanis club, got on the wrong track with his auto one night, and thereby hangs a tale.

Proceeding west on W. Second-st., it was Maurer's intention to turn south on State-st. But a storm was raging and he did not see enough. He kept on going straight ahead and bumped along along the track of the Ft. Wayne, Van Wert & Lima Traction company.

The auto "light" was extinguished. Maurer could not get his motor started. Then he heard the raucous warning of a westbound car behind him.

Jumping from the stalled auto, he rushed along the tracks and flagged the car. The motorist seemed to hesitate about stopping. Maurer was in a sweat.

The car finally stopped, however, the cow catcher within an inch of the auto's rear wheels.

Maurer recovered from the shock Monday very nicely.

"Cy" Williams, of Williams & Davis, undertakers, built himself a nice new home on Rosedale-av shortly before Christmas. He moved into the new place a few days ago.

He called up his place of business recently and informed his associates he would not be down that day, giving as his reason that he had run into the corner of a door in the dark, giving himself a somewhat darker eye. Friends suggested that he inspect his new house in the daytime, so that he might know where the doors are located.

Ditt Specs, Wapakoneta barber, tells of a young woman friend who visited in the country. She was anxious to learn rural ways and started in by gathering the eggs.

Entering the hen house, where a number of busy birds were on the nests, she said: "All who have laid eggs, please raise their right hand."

Alex Throck was in Cleveland on a business mission. One of his shoes needed repairing. He left it at a so-called shoe hospital. He sent a hotel bell-boy to get it. The price seemed high. Alex consulted the bell-boy.

"I guess," he said, "they must have had a private room in that shoe hospital."
